The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

Scripture Reflection
18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." This isn’t a message that gets much advertising. On the contrary, just about every advertised message we hear comes from someone who wants to make money by selling us possessions. The message we hear loud and clear on television or Internet ads or on highway billboards or the back cover of magazines is that we need this product or that service in order to be happy. Professional marketers are in the business of creating a supposed need and then promising to fill it with their product. In today’s culture, it’s hard to remember that life isn’t about possessions.

But in this Gospel, Jesus reminds us that there is more to life than having “so many good things stored up for many years.” All of this stuff—be it clothes, devices, equipment, decorations, entertainment centers, or anything else—does no lasting good if and when “this night your life will be demanded of you.” Unlike the fool who spends all of his time, energy, and money building larger barns, we should focus our resources on becoming “rich in what matters to God.” This means cultivating virtue instead of vice. It means sharing our money with those in need instead of hoarding it out of selfish greed. The call is a challenging one, and countercultural too. But Jesus never said that the Christian way was the way of the world. As St. Paul instructs us in today’s epistle, “Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly.” Instead of falling for the marketers’ messages, may we have the wisdom to store up our treasure in heaven.

18° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de hoy nos deben de ayudar a reflexionar profundamente en el cómo vemos las cosas materiales que tenemos. Es de que ahorramos para nuestro retiro, de los tantos seguros de vida que nos ofrecen y compramos. Nos hacemos vulnerables para pensar que la vida no se alarga con posesiones, sino que el dueño de la vida es Dios. No es que sea malo el tener, sino que depende de cómo se tiene en los bienes olvidando que el centro debe ser Dios. La lectura del Eclesiastés nos pone la vida como una vana ilusión, como un soplo transitorio que pasa aprisa. “Hay quien se agota trabajando y pone en ello todo su talento, su ciencia y su habilidad, y tiene que dejarlo todo a otro que no lo trabajó.” Las cosas materiales son de carácter efímero. Se explica que será otro el que goce de los bienes sin haber trabajado para obtenerlos. Precisamente, por eso, son tan difíciles las herencias y repartición de bienes. ¿Has pensado en ello? ¿Tienes todo arreglado para el día que Dios llame a tu puerta?

Jesús, por su parte, no se pone de lado de ninguno de los hermanos que piden la herencia, más bien les narra la parábola del hombre rico explicando que no está la vida en poseer, demostrándoles su ambición y el deseo de tener. Ahí es donde debe estar el cuidado de nuestra parte, no caer en la ambición y el poder. Porque con la muerte se termina todo el capital y los planes. Debemos luchar por ser ricos de lo que vale ante Dios. Valorar el amor, la misericordia, la justicia y compartiendo los bienes que Dios por su bondad nos ha dado.

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in your ordinary moments

In the Church we like to build things. We build churches, parish centers, schools, and many more brick-and-mortar structures to carry on with our mission. We also build things that are not as tangible. We build engagement. We try to increase the offertory. We work to increase the number of people in programs. We try to fill more seats on a Sunday. Hopefully, we do all these things to help fulfill our mission, which is to bring people to Jesus Christ and assist them in becoming mature and intentional disciples. But having spent over twenty years in parish ministry, I realize that is not always the case.

As individuals we can fall prey to the same temptations as a parish community. We begin to lose sight of why we live a stewardship way of life and why we were called in our baptism to share with others the good news. We compete with others, much like a parish sometimes competes with the parish across town. We may find ourselves doing things without thought or reflection, performing these tasks simply because that is what we have always done. Finally, we may limit our role in God’s plan because we fear not having the time, talent, or money to accomplish what God has asked of us. We become more practical and less trusting in God’s promises.

The reality is that there will come a day when all our churches, parish centers, and schools will be no more. All we have stored up as communities and individuals will cease to exist. All that will remain is God and those who love him. We can never lose sight of why we do what we do: eternal life with Jesus Christ. Will there be a list at the end of your life of all those you helped lead to the Father? I do not know. But if there is one, my prayer for each of us is that it is very, very long.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Parish Office will close at 12:00 pm on Friday through August 5th.
The Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Make All Souls your parish home, today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulsanford.org. Why not sign up today?

Welcome:

8  Rev. Sean Shine  2008
10  Rev. Richard Gaffney  1983
12  Rev. Patrick Grogan  1997
21  Rev. Edward O’Shea  1977

26  Rev. Bronis Benesевич  1993
27  Rev. Patrick Murphy  1982

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint of the Week

Peter Julian Eymard  1811-1868
Memorial—August 2

A patron saint of eucharistic devotion, Peter Julian began his adult life, like his father, as a cutler. But he became a priest of the French Alpine Diocese of Grenoble in 1834. In 1839, he left diocesan service to become a Marist priest and eventually became provincial of his congregation at Lyons. But, after making a pilgrimage in 1851, he understood that Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, to whom he was utterly devoted, had no specific religious institute dedicated to him. Subsequently, he founded the Congregation of the Priests of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament, an order of sisters, both devoted to perpetual adoration. He was canonized in 1962. Later, John Paul II named him an “Apostle of the Eucharist.”

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: We all struggle with the illusion that happiness is found in our possessions. God constantly reminds us that we will never find happiness through the possession of earthly things but only in the things of heaven, the things that matter to God. What matters to God? Care for the poor, the widow, and the marginalized; pursuing love at all costs; and raising our thoughts to what is above are the things that matter to God.
