24º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas del Evangelio de este domingo están enfocadas en la ternura y misericordia de Dios hacia su pueblo que tropieza cayendo en la infidelidad. En la primera lectura llama la atención la capacidad de diálogo e intercesión de Moisés hacia Dios abogando por el pueblo de Israel que había caido en el pecado de idolatría. A Dios no le gusta el mal, y aparentemente está enojado, pero siempre acaba manifestando su ternura y misericordia hacia su pueblo que tropieza cayendo en ella. El Papa Francisco en la Bula de la Misericordia (No. 1), nos recuerda que “Jesucristo es el rostro de la misericordia del Padre. El misterio de la fe cristiana parece encontrar su síntesis en esta palabra. Ella se ha vuelto viva, visible y ha alcanzado su culmen en Jesús de Nazaret”. ¿Eres el rostro de Dios en los que te rodean? ¿Crees que este rostro se encuentra en tu familia, tus compañeros de trabajo, tu comunidad? ¿De qué forma respondemos en las diferentes circunstancias de la vida? Jesús, hoy, nos narra tres parábolas y en ellas buscamos que descubramos ese rostro tan hermoso de su Padre del cielo. Las tres parábolas tienen un mismo fin y un mismo mensaje. La alegría de recobrar lo perdido (la oveja, la moneda y al hijo pródigo). Con un solo fin, mostrar la misericordia infinita y salvadora de Dios hacia nosotros, ovejas perdidas ¡Alegremonos que Dios nos busca! El Buen Pastor anda tras nosotros, escuchemos su voz.

¡Alegrémonos que Dios nos busca! El Buen Pastor anda tras nosotros, escuchemos su voz.

Scripture Reflection
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, ‘This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.’” Jesus knew these self-righteous religious leaders were complaining. And he knew they needed to learn a lesson. So, in addition to giving a lived example of welcoming the company of “tax collectors and sinners,” Jesus also directly taught the skeptics about the importance of welcoming those who have been lost. Today’s Gospel gives a powerhouse lineup of three parables that all teach a similar message: rejoice over the lost sheep, rejoice over the lost coin, and rejoice over the return of the lost son.

The theme can be summarized in the simple directive: rejoice! don’t reject. When someone who isn’t part of the “fold” appears in church, this is cause for rejoicing! It should not be cause for gossip, sideways glances, or nervous whispers about what to do or say. Rather a genuine smile and word of welcome would be in order at the very least, and a heartfelt invitation to join the community would be totally appropriate.

Too often we become complacent about our Christian company. We get used to seeing the same people every Sunday and forget about the “lost” men and women who are outside the bounds of our comfort zone. Jesus gives us the image of an active shepherd who goes “after the lost one until he finds it,” and a diligent widow who will “sweep the house, searching carefully” until she finds her coin. He tells us of a father who “ran to his son, embraced and kissed him,” in spite of the separation they had faced. We too are called to take initiative in seeking out those who are lost, and to rejoice heartily when they finally do come back home.

Join Our Family of Faith

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today? We Love New Members!

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

A message from your local Knights of Columbus Council 5357

A few weeks ago, widespread disastrous flooding in southern Louisiana left 13 people dead and damaged more than 100,000 homes. In the aftermath, the people of Louisiana responded with hope and perseverance, as volunteers — including members of the Knights of Columbus — came to lend a hand in the recovery. Victims of the flooding are still in dire need of help, however.

Severe mold is taking over the homes that are still standing, which could lead to severe allergic reactions and fatal respiratory seizures. The cost of the repairs to fight such damage is yet another blow to the already devastated communities. In addition, many of these homeowners do not have flood insurance to help cover these costs.

These people desperately need your assistance. The Knights of Columbus, as a national Catholic fraternal organization, is taking a leadership role in helping those in the affected communities. Please, if you are able to help, make a donation today.

Donations can be made online at www.kofc.org/flood or make check or money order payable to: "Knights of Columbus Charities". Kindly specify "Louisiana Flood Relief" on the memo line of your check and send to: Knights of Columbus Charities, One Columbus Plaza, PO Box 1966, New Haven, CT 06509-1966

Stewardship

Due to an advanced bulletin deadline, our offertory collection amounts and attendance were not available. This information will be published in next weekend’s bulletin.

Next weekend we will have our Annual Collection for our Sister Diocese, San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic. This annual collection supports the major portion of the work done through the Diocesan Mission Office for the benefit of our Sister Diocese, where we provide educational, health, and pastoral support to the people in the mountainous regions of this diocese. Please be as generous as your means permit

Patriot Day 2016

911. For years, those numbers simply meant a call for help. Now they also remind us of September 11, 2001, the date of the worst terrorist attack on the United States of America and one of the deadliest days ever on American soil.

In October 2001, the United States Congress passed a joint resolution designating that every September 11th be observed as "Patriot Day." The resolution requests that U.S. government entities and interested organizations and individuals display the flag of the United States at half staff on Patriot Day and that the people of the United States observe a moment of silence in honor of the individuals who lost their lives as a result of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks.

San Pedro Spiritual Development Center will be offering "Joyful Again", a retreat for all widowed men and women on October 1 and 2, 2016.

This is a two-day retreat for widows and widowers who want to resolve the grief they feel inside and begin to live again after the death of their spouse. Joyful Again is sponsored by the Diocese of Orlando, Office of Family Life and Pastoral Care. For more information or to make a reservation please contact: Sharon Groholski 386.717.4452.

If you’ve got what it takes to go round after round, then you’ll enjoy BINGO with KofC. We offer three game packages plus extras, a snack bar and full meals, intermissions, and a guaranteed payout. Located in the Columbus Club of Sanford, 2509 Myrtle Ave, Sunday & Thursday night, 5:30pm. State law requires that all persons playing Bingo must be at least 18 years of age.

Retreat for Widowed

Dear Parishioners, On occasion, you may see a family or a person asking for financial assistance outside of Church after Mass. Our hearts, filled with Christian charity, want to help in some way—most especially if there are children involved. However, we ask that you please do not give money, but rather refer these people to our Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Our Vincentian volunteers are ever-ready to come to the aid of those in our community who seek assistance: 407.330.4400

Dear Friends,

Last week we celebrated the canonization of Mother Teresa of Calcutta. What an honor for us to have lived in such a time as this beautiful, holy, humble, and simply amazing woman of God! So many of us want to make a difference. Some of us feel a call to do something more, and others wanting to leave their imprint on the world. All holy and very good desires. Mother Teresa tells us to “do little things with great love.” She modeled this for us. She taught this to all her daughters in the convent. Despite her feelings, she gave her all to those whom she served. May we follow her example and be reminded that God is with us even when we feel distant from Him. May we give our yes, totally and fully one at a time, seeking neither approval, nor praise, knowing that God’s love is the ONE thing that matters the MOST. “I am told God lives in me — and yet the reality of darkness and coldness and emptiness is so great that nothing touches my soul.” —Mother Teresa, 1957

“The cry of Jesus on the Cross, ‘I thirst’ (Jn 19: 28), expressing the depth of God’s longing for man, penetrated Mother Teresa’s soul and found fertile soil in her heart.” —Pope John Paul II, 19 October 2003

Let us pray during this month of September for the repose of the soul of:

- 19: Rev. Jon Oliver 2003
- 20: Msgr. Patrick Nolan 1970
- 23: Rev. Louis Bamundo 1986
- 27: Rev. Charles Schneider 1995

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
