WITH ALL PRAYER AND SUPPLICATION, PRAY AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY IN THE SPIRIT.

...that speech may be given me to open my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel for which I am an ambassador in chains, so that I may have the courage to speak as I must.

EPHESIANS 6:18-20

VIVAN ORANDO Y SUPICANDO. OREN EN TODO TIEMPO SEGÚN LE INSPIRE EL ESPIRITU.

...para que, al hablar, se me den palabras y no me falte el coraje para dar a conocer el misterio del Evangelio cuando tenga que presentar mi defensa, pues yo soy embajador encadenado de este Evangelio.

EPESOS 6, 18-20

THE 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Scripture Reflection—25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently." It's important to pay attention to the details of the parable Jesus tells in today's Gospel. At first glance, it might seem as if Jesus is encouraging us to be dishonest. But in fact, it's just the opposite. The steward in this tale was reported to his master "for squandering his property." In other words, the steward was not being responsible with what he was in charge of. And the master was ready to fire him on account of it. But then, the steward had a change of heart. (This isn't so hard to comprehend—sometimes it takes a real threat for us to realize we need to change our ways, doesn't it?) So the steward went to the people from whom he had previously collected money to "make friends" with them. How? By reducing their debts.

This might seem to be dishonest yet again, but we need to bear in mind that in the end, the master was pleased with the steward's behavior. So this debt reduction must not have affected the master's pocketbook. Rather, it seems probable that the steward had originally hiked up what the debtors owed the master and put the extra cash in his own pocket. This was the sort of extortion that was common in those days, among tax collectors for example. Now, when the steward was about to lose his position, he thought it wise to go back and return that "dishonest wealth" to the folks who had lost it, and gain some sympathy in the process. So, in the end, the steward was making up for his previous cheating behavior by doing something RIGHT and smart. It's this honest behavior that will enable him to take his place in "eternal dwellings." And surely our honest behavior will have the same effect.

25º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Parábola y advertencia es lo que nos presenta la Liturgia de la Palabra este domingo. Nos hace ver que en los tiempos del profeta Amós ya se tenían semejantes problemas de dinero. Exactamente, como los tenemos ahora en nuestra sociedad. Es por eso que el profeta en sus predicaciones denuncia y advierte las grandes injusticias que se llevaban a cabo. Sus palabras son directas y claras. Si se quiere hacer la voluntad de Dios hay que actuar bajo la influencia de ella, preocupándonos por los demás, por eso que el profeta en sus predicaciones denuncia y advierte las grandes injusticias que se llevaban a cabo. Sus palabras son directas y claras. Si se quiere hacer la voluntad de Dios hay que actuar bajo la influencia de ella, preocupándonos por los demás.

Por si acaso estamos cortos de información sobre este tema, el Señor Jesús nos aclara sobre las enseñanzas relacionadas con las riquezas. Él nos cuenta la parábola del administrador que es despedido por su patrón por estar malgastando sus bienes. Jesús advierte el cómo debemos de actuar en nuestra vida cristiana y sobre todo poner atención en los bienes futuros no en los terrenales. El Papa Francisco también nos aconseja lo siguiente: “No puedes servir a Dios y al dinero, no se puede: o el uno o el otro. Y esto no es comunismo, esto es Evangelio puro. Estas cosas son palabra de Jesús. ¿Entonces qué pasa con el dinero? ... Te va bien, te sientes un poco importante y después sobreviene la vanidad... la riqueza para sentirse suficientes, la vanidad para sentirse importante y, al final, el orgullo y la soberbia” (Meditación diaria de 20 de septiembre de 2013). Make All Souls your parish home, today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

Dear Parishioners, On occasion, you may see a family or a person asking for financial assistance outside of Church after Mass. Our hearts, filled with Christian charity want to help in some way—most especially if there are children involved. However, we ask that you please do not give money, but rather refer these people to our Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Our Vincentian volunteers are ever-ready to come to the aid of those in our community who seek assistance: 407.330.4400

Adult Faith Formation News

“Prayer: The Faith Prayed”
This year, the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday this weekend. The theme is: “Prayer: The Faith Prayed.” Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.”

On behalf of All Souls Catholic Church I would like to thank all those who serve in the area of catechesis It is an honor and a joy to work with so many generous and dedicated men and women. All Souls is blessed and rich in so many ways as a result of your participation in an area which is at the center of all that we do.

Jesus calls us to go out to all the world and tell the Good News. Each day, because of you we fulfill that commission! Take a look at the numbers below just so that you might get a little glimpse of how many are impacted by the YES of these faithful parishioners.

2013 to present 300+ registered in Faith Formation at All Souls Catholic Church
95+ received First Holy Communion each year
70+ confirmed each year

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

How We Help Others: In an effort to fight homelessness, the National Office of SVDP has launched a program of systemic change. All Souls SVDP took the challenge and received a grant from the National Office. All Souls Conference has since taken three families (a mother with five children, a mother with three children and a father with two children) and placed them in their own homes. With this success, SVDP is now working with its 4th family (a mother with two children). With the assistance of parish members, our local SVDP Thrift Store and monthly case management, SVDP is changing lives. We’re Walking – Yes Indeed! It’s almost here! Join us for the 9th Annual Friends of the Poor Walk on Saturday morning, October 1, at 9 am at Fort Mellon Park in downtown Sanford. Funds raised help us help others in our community.
