The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulsanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulsanford.org

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The Pharisee and the tax collector—polar opposites by practice. The one is a religious leader, a professional follower-of-the-law. The other is a deviant who extorts money for himself as he goes about his economic business. But in today’s parable, Jesus flips these perceptions around. The humble tax collector is the one who "went home justified." Whereas the Pharisee has a flawless outer appearance, when we see a glimpse into his inner thoughts we detect his vanity and presumption. We see a man who may keep the letter of the law, but who is not truly converted to God's ways in his heart. The tax collector, on the other hand, pleads for God's mercy, recognizing that he needs it.

So, which one are we? Honestly, most of us are probably a combination of these two character types. Most of us follow God's laws some of the time, and fail to do so at other times. But the important point is to honestly acknowledge when we do fail, and to ask God to have mercy upon us. If we think we have nothing about which to plead for mercy, chances are we are living in a kind of self-imposed blindness like the Pharisee. When we won't admit we need help, it's hard to get the help we need! Instead, we should humble ourselves by honestly examining our conscience (regularly!) and seeking God's forgiveness, particularly through reconciliation, the great sacrament of divine mercy.

As hard as it may be for some of us to confess our sins to a priest, this humble act of acknowledging our failings prepares us to be "justified" like the tax collector who cried out, "Be merciful to me a sinner!"

30º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de hoy escuchamos a dos hombres, un publicano y un fariseo que fueron al templo para hacer oración a Dios. El fariseo pensaba que Dios estaba muy orgulloso de él y de todo lo que hacía. El publicano en cambio pensaba que él no era digno de acercarse a Dios porque era pecador. Simplemente pedía misericordia. Sospecho que muchos de nosotros nos desconcertamos al oír esta parábola. Porque quizá pensamos como el fariseo y nos decimos a nosotros mismos: Yo me siento una persona muy buena, asisto a Misa los domingos, cumplo los mandamientos, doy mi colecta a mi parroquia, trato de convivir con mi vecino, etcétera. Sin embargo, Jesús nos indica que eso no es lo correcto. ¿Dónde está lo incorrecto del fariseo? Él olvidó un importante elemento de la vida espiritual: la humildad que nos lleva a la justificación ante Dios. Dios es el misericordioso el que nos salva.

Reconocer que somos pecadores como el publicano y descubrir el inmenso amor de Dios hacia nosotros es lo que las lecturas de hoy tratan de enseñarnos. "La oración del humilde atraviesa las nubes, y mientras él no obtiene lo que pide, permanece sin descanso y no desiste" (Eclo 35, 17). Es importante cumplir con nuestros deberes espirituales y sociales, no es malo cumplir los mandamientos y ser buenos, pero, hay que estar atentos al mensaje de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy. Estar atentos en enfocarnos en la bondad de Dios. Reconocer que todos somos pecadores y que todos tenemos necesidad de la misericordia de Dios es una gracia. ¡Pidámonos esa gracia en esta Eucaristía!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

Faith Formation News...

In the Gospel this week, Jesus speaks to us about prayer. Praying with scripture is one of my favorite ways to pray. I find that I not only come to know who God is but I come to know and understand more about myself and who I am.

As our children prepare for First Reconciliation, I ask that you please make it a priority to attend Mass as a family, to pray as a family, and to take time to share your lives with each other. As you do so, you will encounter Him in each other. This encounter will draw you closer to each other and to Him, a beautiful fruit which will then be experienced by all whom you meet. God bless you. You are all in my prayers.

Jenny Mansingh, Director of Faith Formation

We—Colin and Bobby Heneghan, would like to thank everyone who came out to support the 2nd Annual Jenni Heneghan Spaghetti Dinner. We also would like to thank everyone involved with the preparations and those who donated their time and efforts to make this a wonderful success. Thank you too, to our All Souls Church family for your support and blessings this past year after the quick passing of my wife, Colin’s mom, friend of so many, and principal of our beloved All Souls Catholic School. Please always keep the school in your thoughts and prayers. God bless you all!

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the week: Becoming self-righteous is a trap into which many well-meaning people can fall. We can mistakenly believe that we are somehow more favored or superior in God’s eyes because of our fidelity and piety. This is a blatantly wrong assumption. God’s mercy and love extends to the worst of sinners and He responds to the pleas of those who are most humble.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Food Pantry Needs of the Week: Box potatoes or small dish soap and/or small laundry detergent. Last Week: 124 items were donated with a retail value of $316. Thanks!

Did you know you can donate that scary car parked in your driveway to support St. Vincent de Paul? It looks terrific with the ghost and goblin decorations, but what about the rest of the year? St. Vincent de Paul appreciates your donation. It’s simple, and the pick-up is free. Call us now: 800.322.8284

Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel, the tax collector’s prayer allows God to be God and so allows God to pour mercy into his heart. When we pray and give alms to the poor, we allow God’s mercy to be poured into their hearts.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also can give God’s mercy to your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

What is Human Trafficking?

The United Nations Protocol on Human Trafficking defines human trafficking as the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring or receipt of persons, by means of the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability.

Human trafficking takes a variety of forms in every region of the world. Some adults and children are trafficked for prostitution and other forms of commercial sexual exploitation. Other individuals are trafficked for forced labor in agriculture, sweat shops, fishing crews, and domestic servitude or are trapped in situations of bonded labor or debt bondage. Some children may be lawfully and forcibly recruited as child soldiers by armed forces, as combatants or for other forms of labor.

The essence of human trafficking is the denial of personal freedoms. Human trafficking can include, but does not require, movement. People may be considered trafficking victims regardless of whether they were born into a state of servitude, were transported to the exploitative situation, previously consented to work for a trafficker, or participated in a crime as a direct result of being trafficked. The common denominator is the goal of exploitation through coercion and/or force.
