The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org
32º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La primera lectura nos da pautas clave para darnos cuenta de lo difícil que fue para los judíos de este tiempo serle fiel a Dios. Si usted se toma algún tiempo en casa para leer más de este pasaje verá lo heroico de los siete hermanos y su madre al dar la vida por su fe. La lectura breve que escuchamos de ellos nos narra experiencias vividas por este pueblo 175 años antes de Cristo, donde todos los que creían y eran fieles a Dios, resucitarían en el último día. Además, este pasaje ayuda a comprender el porqué los sacerdotes le preguntan a Jesús sobre la resurrección en la cual este grupo no creía. Ellos no aceptaban ninguna parte de la Biblia, excepto los cinco primeros libros, no creían en ángeles ni espíritus. ¿Cuál es la diferencia entre los siete hermanos Macabeos y su madre y el grupo de los saduceos? ¿Se ve algo relacionado sobre la forma de creer en nuestro tiempo?

Jesús clarifica donde estaban equivocados en su forma de pensar. Les dice algo completamente diferente. "No se casarán ni podrán ya morir, porque serán como los ángeles e hijos de Dios, pues él los habrá resucitado" (Lc 20, 36). ¡Les revela el misterio de la resurrección! Nada de lo que vemos en este mundo se comparará a lo que vendrá. Todo depende de la fe, pero algo es seguro, somos creados para la vida eterna, vida que ni siquiera podemos imaginarnos. San Pablo lo describe así: "Que el mismo Señor nuestro, Jesucristo, y nuestro Padre Dios, que nos ha amado y nos ha dado gratuitamente un consuelo eterno y una feliz esperanza..." (2 Tes 2, 16).

An interesting interpretation of this comes from Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, the Preacher of the Papal Household, who said "marriage does not come to a complete end at death but is transfigured" (Homily, November 10, 2006). Catholic author Stephen Ray described it this way in a letter to his mother who was grieving the loss of her husband: "We cannot understand our new spiritual bodies and heavenly existence any more than a caterpillar can comprehend what it will be like to be a butterfly. We cannot anticipate how personal relationships will flower in glory any more than [an] acorn can anticipate standing 50 feet tall." Whatever it will be, we can trust it will be wonderful! LPI, Inc.

What is a Parish Mission?

An FYI about Parish Missions (taken from OSV)
A parish mission is a time of grace, a time for repentance, for change, for becoming a renewed person
Parish missions today include eschatological elements, however, the main emphasis is centered upon how much the loving Lord desires to encounter and save each one of us.
There are people who offer good courses on prayer, the liturgy, pastoral involvement, or instruction about Social Justice, but to equate these activities to a parish mission is misleading.
Obviously, these other services are important elements in a full Christian life, but a parish mission touches the very core of a Christian’s being, moves his or her heart either to recall (or learn for the first time) how passionate God’s love is for each and every one of his sons and daughters, and how far a person can stray from this covenant.

Our Parish Mission will be held from November 26 to November 30
Please mark your calendars now and plan to attend!

Remembering our deceased diocesan priests

Let us remember the truly remarkable priests who have impacted our lives and especially those deceased priests of the Diocese of Orlando.

Let us pray during this month of November for the repose of the soul of:

Father John Caulfield—November 3, 2013
Father Charles Anderson—November 9, 1994
Father Paul Kamide—October 11, 2010
Father Ciarán James Fahey—November 15, 1995
Father Thomas Bergin—November 17, 2004
Father Kelly Cosgrove—November 19, 2001
Father George Moreau—November 22, 2000
Father Gerald Lutyens—November 29, 1974
Father William Killion—November 30, 1994

Prayer for our Deceased Priests

O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

This week, the sanctuary Light in our Chapel burns this week for Barbara Santopietro, as requested by her “Daily Mass Friends”. May God hear our prayers for her, protect and heal her.

All are welcome here... If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

“It is simply impossible to lead, without the aid of prayer, a virtuous life.”

We Want You! We ask you prayerfully consider a call to grow spiritually through service to our brothers and sisters in need. Check us out: We’re meeting this Monday, November 7, at 7 pm at the Knights of Columbus Hall (2504 S. Oak Ave.) in Sanford.

It’s the season of giving! St. Vincent de Paul needs your support now more than ever. Donate your vehicle to support our non-profit and receive a tax deduction. The process is simple; the pick-up is free. Contact us now for more information: 800.322.8284 or visit svdporlando.org

Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel we find God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us; therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future. When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

Our upcoming parish mission...;

Preaching at our upcoming parish mission will be Father Joseph Mary Deane, CFR a priest from the Community of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal (CFR) of the San Juan Diego Friary, located in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, New Mexico. The CFRs are a relatively new religious community that was founded in 1987 out of the Bronx, New York.

The community is composed of men who have a desire to live the Rule of St. Francis of Assisi in the Capuchin Franciscan tradition. The friars serve the material and spiritual needs of the very poor and work for the reform and renewal of the Church through the evangelical preaching of personal reform. The CFRs characterize themselves as Catholic, Franciscan, Capuchin, contemplative, active, apostolic, fraternal, pro-life, and witnesses to the Gospel. They are deeply committed to the New Evangelization as envisioned by our beloved Saint John Paul the Great.

Our time with Father Joseph promises to be renewing, healing and joyful as we enter into the season of Advent. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—November 28 –30. Watch for our bulletin insert next weekend.

Human Trafficking Awareness Session

The Catholic Diocese of Orlando, Human Trafficking Task Force is working with community and government task forces throughout the nine counties of the diocese and with the USCCB Coalition of Catholic Organizations against Human Trafficking to bring to light awareness of this tragic epidemic.

Next Saturday, November 12th from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm at the All Soul Catholic School Social Hall, (adjacent to the Historic Chapel on Oak Avenue) our Society of St. Vincent de Paul in cooperation with the diocesan Human Trafficking Task Force will provide an informational and educational session to create awareness within our community of the prevalence of this problem in our country and in our immediate area. This session is open to anyone interested in finding out how prevalent this problem is and what each of us can do to help eliminate human trafficking. Please plan to attend this important informational event!

More information on Human Trafficking may be found at the parish office.
