The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsouissanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsouissanford.org
The 3rd Sunday Ordinary Time

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." Peter, Andrew, James, and John’s lives would never be the same. They were going about their usual business—fishing on the Sea of Galilee—when Jesus approached them and said, "Come after me." And that’s just what they did. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Such a quick response to such a radical request!

What compelled these men to leave their livelihood to follow the Lord? His promise to them was that he would make them "fishers of men." Perhaps they thought that promise sounded fabulous. But it seems more likely that it was Christ himself who drew the men. There must have been something utterly attractive about him, and completely trustworthy. Otherwise, it seems unbelievable that these men would have been so quick to respond to his call.

This compelling man is the same Christ who calls us. We hear his voice in a different way, of course, through the Church and through the Bible, through his Spirit in our hearts, but it is nonetheless the same Jesus of Nazareth who asks us to follow him. Have we allowed ourselves to be drawn by his voice? Are we open to a real encounter with the Lord who changes lives?

If our relationship with Jesus does not transform us, if it does not change us into different, better people moment by moment and day by day, then chances are that we are not truly encountering him. He is too powerful to be inconsequential. It might take some courage and commitment to come into authentic contact with the Lord, but when we do, our lives will never be the same.

3er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El punto importante de este Evangelio es que el ministerio de Juan Bautista ha terminado. Con su arresto, la tradición de los profetas del Antiguo Testamento termina. Jesús entra, inaugurando una realidad nueva, llamando a Pedro, Andrés y más adelante a Santiago y Juan hijos de Zebedeo. Ellos no dudaron en seguirlo, se convirtieron en sus discípulos para proclamar el Reino de Dios que Jesús anunciaba ahora. La humanidad ahora se mueve de la oscuridad a una gran luz. Nuevas enseñanzas, nuevas curaciones para todas clase de enfermedades. Llega una nueva vida con la presencia de Dios en el mundo por medio de su Hijo Jesús. ¿Qué podemos aprender nosotros de esta lectura del Evangelio? ¿A qué nos mueven las lecturas, qué sentimientos nos provocan?

Para vivir el misterio de Cristo en nuestra vida hay una clave y la podemos ver ahora. Todo encuentro con Jesucristo provoca una respuesta. El Evangelio de este domingo nos muestra la forma de cómo respondieron sus primeros discípulos. "Rápido y decididos". Enfocados en Jesús. Si, así, lo hicieron ellos pasando por todo durante la vida pública del Maestro. Y nosotros, ¿cómo lo hacemos ahora? El Evangelista Mateo acierta el cien por ciento al decir que la gran luz brillando en la oscuridad es Jesús. Creo que todos hemos vivido los momentos de tensión a través del país por la violencia de policías contra la comunidad y viceversa. Sin embargo dentro de todo el problema siempre existen personas que nos conducen a esa luz que es Dios. Jesús hizo y hace la misma invitación. "Convíértanse, porque ya está cerca el Reino de los cielos" (Mt 4, 17). LPI, Inc.
Dear Sisters in Christ,

Our CCW Weekend was a spectacular event. Holy Mass on Saturday evening, distribution of our new brochure, and then dinner for 28 at Colorado Steakhouse with our priests. Thanks be to God for them. Ladies of the Parish please plan to attend our General Meeting on February 7 at 7pm at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Terry Frana our very own Parishioner will be our Guest Speaker. Her inspiring and holy experience should be heard by all. Also, Bunko tickets will be sold after the Masses this weekend and next.

Lead with your heart!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

We Love New Members and Welcome:
Cesar, Ashley & Alison Jimenez and Daisy Cruz
John White
Mildred Mongelli
Ken & Amy Cordova
Michael, Kristine, Katherine & Jacob Lowe
Larry & Connie Bryan, Angelical Bryan Chaves Anthony Johnson
Brett, Kristin & James Bormann

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church or register online at the parish website allsoulssanford.org to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

A very sincere and heartfelt thanks to all of our parishioners whose stewardship of treasure is offered to the parish each year. All Souls Catholic Church cannot survive without your generosity. Your financial support is truly a gift from God!

If you would like a statement of your contributions made to All Souls Catholic Church during 2016, please call: Ann Cammarata at the parish office 407.322.3795 or email to: acammarata@allsoulssanford.org with 2016 Tax Stmnt in the subject line.

Statements of contributions will be available to all registered parishioners (PDF email or by USPS) who give online or use offertory envelopes or contribute by check AFTER January 31st.
Please note: due to postage costs to the parish we do not automatically send out offertory statements.

Parishioners who only give online may print out a statement of their contributions by logging on to their account at the secure WeShare site through the parish homepage at: allsoulssanford.org.

Faith Formation News...

Attention Students and Parents: The first session of Sacramental Preparation for First Holy Communion will be held this coming Monday, January 23 at 6:20 pm in the Historic Chapel. At least one parent must attend with your child. Attendance to these sessions are mandatory. Parents, each week during the period of the First Holy Communion Sacramental Preparation session you will find a short teaching or an assignment for you to complete with your child. This will be part of your formation and the follow-up will take place at the session immediately after. For example:

The word Eucharist means “thanksgiving”
Altar – the table around which Catholics gather to celebrate the Eucharist

Looking forward to seeing you this coming Monday at 6:20 pm.
Jenny Mansingh, Director of Faith Formation

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

- We Are Truly Blessed: Recently, a parishioner of All Souls found a wallet and a cell phone. When she returned the items to the man she was offered a reward. She declined for herself, but asked if she could give it to SVDP for the poor. He was delighted to contribute! Great way to start the New Year!

- Food Pantry Needs of the Week: 1 lb. rice and boxed potatoes. Last Week: 191 items were donated with a retail value of $337. Thanks!

- Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel, we find that Jesus “...proclaimed the good news of the kingdom and cured the people of every disease and illness.” Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul proclaim the good news of Jesus to those who are suffering.
