The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

The Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

Recognize God in the Ordinary...

Many young people want to make a path for themselves in life without the help and guidance of others. My own young adult son oftentimes refuses assistance because he feels that he must learn to go it alone and have his achievements based solely upon his effort. However, few truly get anywhere of circumstance without the aid of others.

The body of Christ only functions well when we move together and help each other. Unfortunately, too often parts of the body seek to do their own thing and do not integrate with the other parts. We use our gifts in ways that are only focused on our own gains and our own being. But be mindful, our gifts exist in us to be cultivated and shared with God and his people.

In the same manner, with Jesus as the head of this body, he is there for us as well. In Jesus we find our rest and assistance with our burdens. I cannot imagine life without the compassion and aid of our God. If it isn’t bad enough that some people fail to lean on their brothers and sisters, some of them fail to ever turn to God.

This is never good stewardship. A stewardship way of life seeks to share and integrate with others, especially Jesus. We have been created for community. If we take seriously our discipleship, a true relationship with Jesus always beckons us into community with other believers. Here we are strongest. Here we are the most fruitful. Here we are Christ’s body on earth.

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Peace be with you!

We share with you this week a reflection provided by Susann Engel and Barbara Joslin of the CCW All Souls Spiritual Committee.

“In everything, deal with others as you would like them to deal with you.”

Mt 7:12

Reflection: Goodwill in the soul is the source of all good things and the mother of all virtues. Those who possess it hold in their hand—without fear of losing it—all that is necessary to lead a good life.

- St. Albert the Great.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, grant me the true spirit of goodwill toward all. Let me be ever ready to carry out Your will and to come to the aid of all I encounter on this earthly pilgrimage.

Lead with your heart...

Make All Souls your parish home!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

We Love New Members

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church or register online at the parish website allsoulssanford.org to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

Saint of the Week

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

1656—April 17, 1680

Baptized as Catherine Tekakwitha and informally known as Lily of the Mohawks (1656—April 17, 1680), is a Roman Catholic saint, who was an Algonquin-Mohawk virgin and religious laywoman. Tekakwitha professed a vow of virginity until her death at the age of 24. Known for her virtue of chastity and corporal mortification of the flesh, as well as being shunned by her tribe for her religious conversion to Catholicism, she is the fourth Native American to be venerated in the Roman Catholic Church (after Juan Diego, the Mexican Indian of the Virgin of Guadalupe apparitions, and two other Oaxacan Indians). Various miracles and supernatural events are attributed to her intercession. Her feast day is celebrated on July 14th.

Attention Parishioners! Investment Opportunity

In a time when technology is at its peak; Facebook, snapchat, twitter—you name it, our personal one on one encounter with others is at its lowest, so too is our tolerance, our patience, and even our love. Instead of investing our time in people, to teach them to do something, or to mentor them, or to support them, we allow social media to do that for us. Perhaps, years down the road we will see its level of effectiveness. For now, I know for a fact the level of effectiveness that comes from investing in people. I know this because there were many who mentored me, and many whom I have mentored. Here I am still involved in the church and actively living my faith. So too are those with whom I was privileged to journey with.

With this in mind, I would like to invite you to make an investment in our young people. Make an investment to spend one and a half hour each week to teach them the faith, to teach them how to be a better Catholic, to equip them with tools so that they can make better moral choices, to teach them by SHOWING them that when we speak of the “DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON” we mean business, because even you, as you age still have purpose and you are still making a difference. (Don’t Tell Me, Show Me J)

Classes meet on Tuesday or Wednesday nights from 6:30 pm to 7:45 pm at the Historic Chapel. If you cannot commit to a weekly meeting, perhaps you would consider serving as a substitute teacher. Please call me at 407.322.3795, email me: jmansingh@allsoulssanford.org OR even better, come in and let us have a one on one chat about the possibility of you serving in our faith formation program here at All Souls God Bless you!

Jenny Mansingh, Director of Faith Formation.

The Fathers of the Church often spoke of the concept of “otium sanctum,” or “holy leisure.” In the later works of St. Augustine, he would use this term to refer to the monastic life, in which the monk is free of everyday obligations and can devote his time to study and prayer. However, it is not only the cloistered who are called to live this “otium sanctum”: all are to live lives of holy leisure.

We all recognize the need to set aside time for important things. How often do we tell ourselves we are too busy to do something? When something is important, you make the time. If we have a deadline coming up at work, we make sure that we get the project completed, even if it means coming in early, staying late, or putting aside other projects. This example certainly illustrates the point: When we recognize that something is important, we simply make it happen. We do everything we can to accomplish what is set before us. How much more, then, should this be the case with this idea of holy leisure?

It is not just about spending an hour at Mass on Sunday. We need to commit ourselves to consciously giving that time to the Lord. This week let us consciously begin to live lives of holy leisure!

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer: Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would not have been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God’s word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.
