And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!”
Matthew 15:22
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” This woman was an outsider. She was a Canaanite, not an Israelite, and as such she would have been considered ritually unclean. But she approached Jesus nonetheless and asked for his help. And Jesus used this opportunity to teach his disciples an important lesson.

In the verses directly before today’s passage, Jesus had told Peter that what defiles a person comes from the heart, not from ignoring external purity practices. Then, Jesus traveled with his disciples from Galilee to the region of Tyre and Sidon where they were much more likely to encounter someone considered to be unclean.

At first it appeared that Jesus wasn’t going to acknowledge the woman who begged for help. His comment, “It is not right to give the food of the children and throw it to the dogs,” was a common comparison between Jews (the children) and Canaanites (the dogs). But, in fact, Jesus said this only to go right ahead and break this social code! He showed by his actions that it did not matter whether someone was Jewish or not, what mattered was the faith in a person’s heart. And this woman proved to Jesus and the doubting disciples that she had great faith. How many others would have even approached Jesus to ask for his help? How many doubting disciples would have persevered when he appeared unresponsive?

This woman was an outsider. She was a Canaanite, not an Israelite, and as such she would have been considered ritually unclean. But she approached Jesus nonetheless and asked for his help. And Jesus used this opportunity to teach his disciples an important lesson.

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

Greetings from Russia!

Father Medina at St. Basil’s Russian Orthodox Church, Moscow. St. Basil’s is the largest autocephalous, or ecclesiastically independent, Eastern Orthodox church in the world. Its membership is estimated at more than 85 million. Considered one of the most stunning monuments to the Russian Orthodox Church, St. Basil’s has come to symbolize Moscow and Russia to the outside world. Commissioned by Ivan the Terrible to celebrate the seizure of the Mongol stronghold of Kazan in 1552, the cathedral was accomplished in 1561. It’s reputed to have been designed by the architect Postnik Yakovlev.
Dear Sisters in Christ, Peace be with you!

Summer is over and our students are back in school and college. Let’s pray that all will have an excellent year in studies and fun. Have you been talking up our first meeting of the season? September 5, at 7:00 pm at the K of C Hall, with Dr. Marieke Cajal, PhD with a discussion on early signs of memory loss. Ladies bring your husbands with you, it will be a very informative talk.

Lead with your heart...

Our Council of Catholic Women

How about a weekend that will focus on love, caring, and relationship? It will be the best gift you’ll give each other this year. Plan to go on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend and come back with a marriage that is refreshed and full of passion. The next weekend in the diocese is scheduled in Orlando, Oct 13-15, at the Clarion Hotel near Orlando International Airport. You can get more information or register online at www.wwme.org or by calling Bob & Sheila Baker at 407.647.4289.

Make All Souls your parish home!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

We love new members and welcome:
Arnuifo, Maria, Yena, Israiel, Juan & Sofia Espinoza
Richard, Texys, Soka & Sabrina Urrizarri and Fatima Godey
Thomas & Marjorie Helgoth
Felipe, Brittany, Joshua & Jessica Garcia
Anne Schuck
Shaun Jacobs

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church or register online at the parish website allsoulsanford.org to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

Adult Bible Study Group Starting!

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is a Catholic Bible study that brings the history of Christ to life through Matthew’s Gospel. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven.

Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom in Suite C of the Parish Office, 301 W. 8th Street, Sanford, FL 32771, beginning Monday, September 18 at 9:30am and repeating in the evening at 6:30pm, and continuing every Monday through April 30th. Cost is $20 for the workbook. For more information or to register for the study, email Christina Kalisz at stinaqueen@aol.com or register and pay by visiting our parish website here: https://www.allsoulssanford.org/adult-bible-study-groups

Adults: Learn more about the Catholic faith...

Have you been thinking about becoming a Catholic someday? Do you know of someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic?

Adults enter into full communion with the Catholic Church through a process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or RCIA. Those who have never been baptized look forward to the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. The Baptism of those from other Christian traditions is deeply respected. In their case, preparation leads to Confirmation and Baptism of those from other Christian traditions may also prepare for the sacramental classes through this process.

Father Ken Metz will soon begin classes for those interested in becoming Catholic or completing their sacraments on Tuesday, August 22nd at 7:00pm in the TRC classroom of All Souls Catholic School. Call the parish office for more details and to register 407.322.7090.

Pray for our Deceased Diocesan Priests

O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of many in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray for the deceased priest of our diocese during the month of August.

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: A member of my parish was recently arrested for a white-collar crime. I don't approve of what he did, but he is a great neighbor and a nice person. How should I treat someone like him?

Answer: There is a litany of expressions that fit this situation: Everyone makes mistakes. Hate the sin, love the sinner. Judge not, lest you be judged. All of these proverbs and sayings highlight the fact that we are here to help each other on the way to salvation. Our hope and goal is that everyone grows in grace, drawing closer to God and to the presence of Christ. Part of that process is our struggle, collectively and individually, with sin. And that is the ugly part. Sin is not nice, pretty, or inviting when laid out for all to see. Nor is it easy for the person caught in the spotlight.

Kindness and support are not the same thing as approval. We recognize that good people can do bad things and in their struggle, they allow someone to face the consequences of sin while focusing on the promise of redemption. Your desire to help and support your neighbor is the response of grace to sin, and the same response of Jesus to us.

Food Pantry Need of the Week: Canned Chicken. Last Week: 115 items were donated with a retail value of $316. Donations of gift cards, food and more help support the people we serve. Haven't used that grocery or retail gift card? Your donation helps us help people in need. Thanks!

Vincentian Reflection: Today's Gospel announces the kingdom and salvation are for all people. It is our persistent calling out to Jesus and our faith that count, for Jesus always responds. With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use and please give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Thank You Panera: Our local Panera Bread locations are generously providing breakfast refreshments for our 10th Annual Friends of the Poor Walk on Saturday, September 30. Would you please do us a favor and mention All Souls the next time you visit? Thank you for helping us thank them!

News from St. Vincent de Paul Orlando: Donations of children's clothing are always needed for the Society's support of the Children of the Forest Ministry (for kids living in impoverished areas around the Ocala National Forest).
