A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." — Mark 1:40-41
The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We may not like it, but generosity and risk often go hand-in-hand. At least, that’s what Jesus shows us in today’s Gospel as a leper approaches him for healing. Until the nineteenth century, lepers were shunned to the margins of society for fear of spreading the disease. To touch a leper was to risk becoming unclean yourself. In today’s Gospel, Jesus defies convention. “Moved with pity, he reached out his hand, and [and] touched him.” The leper is healed! But this is not the only risk Jesus takes.

Before Jesus heals the man, he knows full well the desperate nature of his situation. Jesus knows that this man will be overjoyed upon being healed and that he just might tell everyone he knows. For a Messiah looking to temporarily fly under the radar, healing this particular leper might not be the best idea. Jesus heals anyway.

It can be easy to become calculated in our giving. If I go out of my way to help this person, how will it affect my reputation? How will this charitable donation affect my budget? How could I possibly make time to volunteer regularly? In today’s Gospel, Jesus casts these concerns aside. He touches the untouchable. He reaches the unreachable. For his efforts, he receives a betrayal of his request openly.

When we take a risk to be generous, things might not follow the prescribed path. We might be disappointed. We also might be surprised! Our witness to radical generosity is attractive to a world in desperate need. Indeed, when Jesus took risks for love, “People surprised! Our witness to radical generosity is attractive to a world prescribed path. We might be disappointed. We also might be disappointed. We also might be disappointed. For his efforts, he receives a betrayal of his request openly.” Before long “it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly.” Jesus is forced to remain “outside in the deserted places.” It would appear, perhaps, that he is unable to accomplish his mission.

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

Daily Stewardship

If you witnessed a miracle, wouldn't you want to tell everyone? If you saw the sun dance in the sky, a crippled man walk, or the Virgin Mary appear in front of you, wouldn't you just want to shout about it from a rooftop so all could hear? Maybe you would be afraid others would not believe you. You might choose instead to keep it to yourself to avoid criticism and ridicule. At least, if you saw a miracle, you would have a choice: to tell or not to tell.

Yet, at every Mass we witness a miracle. We witness bread and wine as it becomes the true presence of Jesus Christ. It isn’t a saint or Mary appearing before us; it is actually Jesus! When was the last time you told anybody about that miracle?

It might not be easy for us to always talk about our faith, but we can show them. When we receive the Eucharist into our bodies, we become one with Christ. We go forth from the Mass as a living testimony of the miracle that occurred at Mass. People will not be able to simply look at us and see the evidence. We need to demonstrate to them the reality of this miracle by our good deeds and profound acts of charity. That is stewardship. That is bearing witness to the truth of our God being truly present to us. It is something we should want to share with everyone.

Knights of Columbus

Top 3 reasons NOT to join the Knights of Columbus “I don’t have the time.” A couple hours a month? Really? You spend more time than that checking sports scores.

“I’m not a joiner.” Good. We don’t need joiners. We need inspired men who want to make a difference.

“The Knights never do anything.” A few things that our Knights have done in the past couple months. Worked a concessions booth at the Amway Center and Camping World Stadium; Held a dinner dance to benefit local Knights in need; host Bingo at the Columbus Club Bingo Hall (16 times); cooked pork butts for the ASCC Harvest festival and Laps for Life event; Corporate Communion of members and families, monthly business meetings and social meetings including dinner; hosted the Back to School event for ASCS; hosted a blood drive; ran the quarterly food drive for St. Vincent de Paul; moved a lady from her home into a retirement home; (need more...)

Inspiración de la semana

Nunca debemos de marginalizar o dejarnos de preocupar por esas personas que sufren de violencia, opresión de sistemas injustos ni de enfermedades. Jesús nunca rechazaba a nadie; siempre extendía su mano de sanación compasión. Él insistiría en que nosotros también extendamos el amor misericordioso e incondicional de Dios hacia todos, aunque signifique que no santi- ficemos el día sagrado o rompamos la ley. ¿La manera en que usted trata a los demás, especialmente a los que son diferentes a usted, refleja la libertad, el gozo, el amor y la buena noticia del Evangelio?
