St. Michael’s Ministry

In the coming weeks, you will be hearing about more specific ways a person can take part in the St. Michael’s Ministry. There will also be information about steps All Souls Church is, and will be taking to create a safe environment. The one thing every single person can do to help is by becoming more aware of your surroundings and those around you.

The saying, “If you see something, say something” was conceived by a New York ad agency as a response to the September 11 attacks. It has become a global success built upon the idea of people being more aware of their environment. We encourage all our parishioners to report anything that doesn’t look right, or if any person seems to be acting out of sorts. This can help with deescalating any potential issues. Together we will work to build an environment that continues to be a place of welcome and worship, and one where every person will feel safe and secure. (B_03)

Si ve algo, digalo

En las próximas semanas, escuchará acerca de formas más específicas en que una persona puede participar en el Ministerio de San Miguel. Además, habrá información sobre los pasos que All Souls Church estará llevando a cabo para crear un entorno seguro. Lo único que cada persona puede hacer para ayudar es ser más consciente de su entorno y de quienes lo rodean.

El dicho “Si ve algo, digalo” fue concebido por una agencia de publicidad de Nueva York como respuesta a los ataques del 11 de septiembre. Se ha convertido en un éxito global basado en la idea de que las personas sean más conscientes de su entorno. Animamos a todos nuestros feligreses a reportar cualquier cosa que no se vea bien, o si alguna persona parece estar actuando de una forma fuera de lo normal. Esto puede ayudar a reducir cualquier problema posible. Juntos, trabajaremos para construir un entorno que continúe siendo un lugar de bienvenida y adoración, y en el que todas las personas se sientan seguras y a salvo.

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

The 4th Sunday of Lent

Why is the world the way it is? We all wonder that from time to time. Each successive generation projects rose-hued longing on the past and casts furtive glances at the impending future. We see forces beyond our control in nature and in the newspaper. The world is changing and we're being pulled out with the tide.

In the face of this confusion, today's Gospel features one of the most oft-quoted Scripture verses of all time: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” But if Christ has come, why is the world so challenging? Why is the world still - to our eyes - being carried off in a proverbial hand basket? Jesus' response is a deeply personal one. “This is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light.” Patterns arise, habits are formed, and systems become engrained, but each is the result of an interconnected web of human choices.

Where do we stand? Our answers, perhaps, vary from week to week, hour to hour, missed traffic light to spilled coffee to teenage child's rebellion. The world isn't perfect because we aren't perfect. Our parish is flawed because we're flawed. Our families need work because every one of us needs to be converted. Christianity is a process, not a destination!

This Sunday, Jesus invites us to consider our own lives. Where in our own lives do we prefer darkness to light? What flaws are we trying to hide? Humbly acknowledge those places today. Ask God for the grace to be transformed. Share with your spouse or a friend where you'd like to improve this week. “Whoever loves truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.”

Make All Souls your parish home!

All are welcome here...If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: www.allsouls-sanford.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

Our Council of Catholic Women

Dear Sisters in Christ and Ladies of the Parish.

Peace be with you! The "Shamrock Celebration" Fashion Show is coming together and we are very excited. All we need now is for you to come spend the day with us. Tickets are being sold after all the Masses today. The Board is compiling a list of All Souls CCW Past Presidents. Many names have been submitted, however, we do not want to leave anyone out. Maybe you are a Past President or know of one or two, please email or telephone (email address and phone # at bottom of this notice) me with the names. We wish to have ladies that perhaps have moved away or if they are deceased we want to honor them as well. Thank you all for your support and love for Council of Catholic Women. I remain, Leading with my heart,

Eleanor Tolley, President, etolley16@gmail.com

Did you notice??

Those of you who regularly drive the 9th Street route by the Historic Chapel, School and Parish Office and Rectory—please note that the City of Sanford has installed three (3) additional stop signs: Elm Avenue, Myrtle Avenue, and Oak Avenue all along the 9th Street route to the round-about on Park Avenue.

Note: Police have stepped up patrol in the area and are ticketing drivers who do not come to a complete stop. Please be aware of these additional stop signs, obey the law and help us protect our residents and children of All Souls Catholic School who regularly walk these crossings.

Bishop Felipe Estévez, Diocese of St. Augustine and Bishop John Noonan, Diocese of Orlando invite all to participate in the Florida Eucharistic Congress — a celebration of faith – on March 16-17, 2018 at the Prime Osborn Convention Center (1000 Water St., Jacksonville, Florida).

The conference is a celebration of faith featuring a Eucharistic Procession, Mass and break-out sessions about the source and summit of our Catholic faith — the Eucharist. Cardinal Donald Wuerl will present the keynote address.

Complimentary bus transportation will be provided on a first-come, first-serve basis for Saturday, March 17 from various locations of the Diocese of Orlando to the Prime Osborn Convention Center. For more information about the Florida Eucharistic Congress schedule and hotel reservations, please visit www.floridaeucharist.org.

Vivir la Liturgia

Si continúa su jornada de la vida sin un autoconocimiento genuino, sin saber cómo deben estar ordenadas sus relaciones y sin saber qué es la verdad, su camino estará solamente débilmente iluminado. De hecho, cuando tome una decisión equivocada o este confundido sobre su identidad fácilmente se puede encontrar en una oscuridad. “Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo que dio a su Hijo unigénito, para que todo el que crea en mí no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna.” Jesús es la luz que llegó dentro de la oscuridad. No es suficiente que simplemente crea que Jesús es el Cristo. Debe vivir su vida como testigo de esa verdad. Las decisiones que tome y las prioridades que establezca dirán la verdad sobre alguien que cree, alguien que esté confundido, o alguien que esté verdaderamente convencido del amor de Dios. ¿Cuáles de esos es usted?

Looking ahead...

Las Siete palabras de Jesús nos dice una historia de sufrimientos de Jesús durante sus últimas horas en Calvario cumpliendo con su misión. Él habla de perdón, misericordia, amor, abandono, sufrimiento, realización y entrega total a Dios.

Únezase a nosotros mientras reflexionamos sobre 7 últimas palabras de Jesús en 7:00 pm el lunes, 26 de marzo en la capilla histórica. A meditar sobre nuestras cruces individuales y confiar en que en medio de nuestros sufrimientos, Dios está siempre ahí para nosotros, como también estamos llamados a estar presentes unos a otros.

Jesus’ Seven Last Words tell us a story of Jesus’ sufferings during His last hours in Calvary while fulfilling His mission. He speaks about forgiveness, mercy, love, abandonment, suffering, accomplishment and total surrender to God.

Join us as we reflect on Jesus’ 7 Last Words at 7:00 pm on Monday, March 26 in the Historic Chapel. Together let us meditate on our individual crosses and trust that amidst our sufferings, God is always there for us, as we too are called to be present for each other.

Our Sanctuary Light in our Church burns this week in loving memory of Barbara Heneghan, as requested by a friend of the family. May she rest in eternal peace.

Our Sanctuary Light in our Historic Chapel burns this week in loving memory of Minerva Espinosa, as requested by a friend of the family. May she rest in eternal peace.

Our Altar Wine for the month of March is provided by the Janice Gill. Thank you for your ongoing generosity to the parish of All Souls. May God bless you abundantly.

Martyrs of La Florida

The martyrs who died for their Catholic faith between the 16th and 18th century will play a starring role in an upcoming documentary to be aired this year on the Eternal Word Television Network, a global Catholic television cable network. Known as the “Martyrs of La Florida,” the 86 martyrs involved in the evangelization of colonial Florida consists of missionaries and primarily native men, women and children who were killed in hatred of their faith.

The documentary will focus on the martyrs’ Cause for Canonization, which formally began in 2015 under former Bishop Gregory Parkes of the Pensacola-Tallahassee Catholic Diocese. Read more about this wonderful cause here: https://www.martyrsoflafloridamissions.org/
