Easter Sunday

The first light of Easter dawn had begun to creep over the horizon. The steadfast women from Friday’s gory events are returning again to the body of their Lord. "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" How quickly we return to mundane concerns and how thoroughly God wants to surprise us! Imagine the utter shock upon seeing the stone rolled away, the tomb empty, and a stranger clothed in light proclaiming the impossible. "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here." He is risen indeed and the world will never be the same.

We know from other Gospel passages that Mary Magdalene made haste to the disciples to proclaim the Good News. We know that Peter and John rushed to the tomb to see for themselves. We know that the wonder and awe of the Resurrection permeated the lives of the apostles until their own dying day.

Can we comprehend the utterly world-changing nature of this surprise? The historical reanimation of a dead man is of no real value to us. But we know that Easter Sunday is so much more. By the Resurrection of Jesus, life has triumphed over death for us all. The gates of heaven are opened and the treasury of graces is poured out upon the here and now. This Resurrection Day, let us draw near, amazed yet unafraid, to the risen Christ. Let us recall the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Jesus is not a character from the past. He lives, and he walks before us as one who is alive, he calls us to follow him, the living one, and in this way to discover for ourselves the path of life."

Domíngo de Pascua

Ha resucitado, no está aquí. Igual que las mujeres del Evangelio, vamos de la tumba vacía, de la muerte a la vida. Aun más allá, de encontrando vida, debemos ser esa vida. Se puede ser esa vida, porque Cristo Resucitado vive en nosotros, creciendo en nuestros valores y en nuestras acciones. Por eso, está es la nueva era de ser discípulos misioneros de Jesucristo. ¡Aleluya! ¿Qué nos falta para ser nueva vida? Ser como las mujeres a pesar de su miedo creyeron lo que escucharon. "No se asusten. Si ustedes buscan a Jesús Nazareno, el crucificado, no está aquí, ha resucitado". (Marcos 16:6).

Ahi, precisamente está el secreto de este Domingo de Pascua. Escuchar y creer, e ir a anunciar el acontecimiento a la familia y amigos. Estamos viviendo un tiempo de muchos miedos, las noticias que escuchamos y vemos por los medios de comunicación no son alentadoras, el desamor social es contundente. Pero el que escoge creer en la presencia de Cristo Resucitado —es guiado por el a continuar con sus buenos valores y acciones. El punto es no caer en desánimos. Las mujeres buscan un cadáver, pero encontraron una misión muy distinta, unida a la vida no a la muerte. Ellas, de ser mujeres miedosas se han convertido a través de los tiempos en mujeres de la Pascua. ¡Testigos vivos de Jesús! Quizá, se piense por fin se ha llegado al final. Pero en realidad estamos al principio. Recordemos, que, todo empezó en Galilea con Jesús de Nazaret. Este es el compromiso ser testigos y dar testimonio del Resucitado. ¡Aleluya, aleluya!

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org
Make All Souls your parish home!

All are welcome here...If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: www.allsouls-sanford.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

Welcome:

Our Council of Catholic Women

Dear Sisters in Christ and Ladies of the Parish, Peace be with you! Dear Sisters in Christ. Peace be with you. A Blessed Easter to my CCW Sisters in Christ and all the Parishioners of All Souls Catholic Church. Joe and I have spent Holy Week and are celebrating Easter with my brother Msgr. Rowland at Holy Spirit Catholic Church on Johns Island, just outside of Charleston, S.C. (The Holy City as it is known by the locals). We are praying for all of you and will be back for the General Meeting on April 3rd, 7:00 pm, at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Lead with your heart....

Paul, Apostle of Christ movie...

The Knights of Columbus is proud to invite you to support the nationwide theatrical release of Paul, Apostle of Christ.

Produced by Catholic ministry ODB Films and starring acclaimed actors Jim Caviezel and James Faulkner, this movie dynamically and truthfully illustrates the beginnings of Christian persecution under the Roman Empire.

St. Paul’s story is one of conversion, forgiveness and perseverance in the face of extreme intolerance, not unlike that faced by many Christians today. This dramatic retelling of his life can move the hearts of both believers and nonbelievers.

Showing at: UA Seminole Towne Center 10, Epic Theatres of West Volusia with Epic XL, Regal Oviedo Mall Stadium 22, AMC Altamonte Mall 18, Regal Winter Park Village Stadium 20 & RPX.

Questions for Reflection & Response

First Reading: In this passage from Acts, Peter proclaims the resurrection message with boldness. When is the last time you shared the good news of the Gospel?

Second Reading: What do you think Paul means when he says each of us is joined to the death and resurrection of Christ?

Gospel Reading: As you reflect once more on the Resurrection of Jesus, where can you bring new life to someone this week?

Recognize God in the Ordinary

When I was younger and growing up in Alexandria, VA, I remember one year it actually snowed on Easter. It was crazy to see it that late in the year. We got up and dressed in our best spring clothes so we could venture into the snow on our way to Easter Mass. I remember thinking that the day did not feel much like Easter. It was hard to really get into the mood of God making all things new on a day so cold and full of flurries. If I am honest, I think we rushed home after Mass just so we could get on warm pajamas and just watch TV for the rest of the day, snuggled up on the couch with blankets. It might as well have been a Sunday in January.

This year the odds are against it snowing on Easter where I live here in North Carolina. However, for far too many it might as well snow. To them, Easter has nothing to do with the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, new life, or anything of the sort. It is just another Sunday. Some of them don’t care and never think of Jesus or God on any Sunday of the year. But for others, it will not feel like Easter because they have been forgotten. On this day they will sit at home, just like they sit every single day of their lives. They might be poor, elderly, disabled, or simply alone. On this day, there is no resurrection celebration because they have no real experience of the joy of life.

This is where good everyday Stewards can make a difference. In the midst of buying candy and decorating eggs for baskets and buying new clothes to wear to Easter Mass, find someone who needs to experience the power of Easter. Don’t tell them Jesus rose from them, but show them. Instead of the cold of isolation, bring to them the warmth of new life.

You may have seen in our parish bulletin that one of the Sunday Masses is scheduled “People of the Parish”. There should be one such intention for every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation. Here is what the Code of Canon Law says about it:

After a pastor has taken possession of his parish, he is obliged to apply a Mass for the people entrusted to him on each Sunday and holy day of obligation in his diocese. [Canon 534 – canon 540 extends this also to Parish Administrators]

It is commonly understood in the Church that a pastor has care for all of the people within his parish boundaries, not just for Catholics. This is a wonderful thing that you can share with your non-Catholic neighbors. Tell them: “We are praying for you each week. We hope you will someday join us. The door is open. Can I answer any questions for you about the Catholic faith?”

Remembering our Deceased Diocesan Priests

Let us remember the truly remarkable priests who have impacted our lives and especially those deceased priests of the Diocese of Orlando. Let us pray during the month of April for the repose of the soul of:

April 8  Rev. William A. Gunther  2008
April 12  Rev. Jose Luis Meza  2005
April 17  Rev. Domingo Gonzalez  2017
April 19  Rev. Louis J. Gontier  2002
April 21  †Most Rev. Thomas Grady  2002
April 28  Msgr. Luis Maria Padilla  1985
April 29  Msgr. Terrence J. Farrelly  2014

Prayer for our deceased priests: O God, you raised your servants to the sacred Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy abundantly the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Meet our Vincentians

Faces of our Society: Bruce Tannenbaum on being a Vincentian: “I’m a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society because I truly want to serve and help the poor; as I believe Jesus wants us to.”

Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference at All Souls Catholic Church is a Catholic lay organization that leads people to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in our community. Vincentians witness God’s love by embracing all works of charity and justice, making no distinction in those served because in them we see the face of Christ.

Volunteers are needed to work directly with families and daily Society activities. Call the Assistance Hotline at 407.330.4400 to volunteer.

It’s Scholarship Time

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) Conference at All Souls will award educational financial assistance for the 2018/2019 school year to students from schools located in the geographical boundaries of Seminole or Volusia Counties or attending Bishop Moore or Father Lopez High Schools. The awards are for students of any faith who are entering a post-secondary course of study at an accredited college, university or technical school.

Financial aid of up to $1,000 per scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic achievement, financial need, school and community activities and personal qualities and strengths. To be eligible, a student must have a grade point average of at least 2.5. A St. Vincent de Paul member will be assigned to the student as a personal mentor and liaison with the Society. Please note: Application cutoff is April 13, 2018
