The 5th Sunday of Easter

“Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit.”
Are you ready for a trim? In today’s Gospel, we hear the familiar teaching of the vine and the branches. Jesus reminds us that if we remain close to him—living in humility, following God’s law, loving our neighbor—we will notice a positive change in our life and the lives of those around us. “Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit.” The Holy Spirit is life-giving. He is fruitful. The Spirit of God won't refuse grace to a heart that is open.

As we progress through life, learning how to live and love, we grow. Our personalities flower. We discover what it is like to “wither” at times, particularly the times when we willingly separate ourselves from Jesus. "Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me." For most of us, this experience of being disconnected and off track generates a desire to return to what is right and good, to return to the vine.

But this Gospel is more than "Are you in or are you out?" Even when we remain in God, when we follow Jesus, we are not exempt from the challenge, the pruning. "Everyone that [bears fruit] he prunes." A prudent trim is necessary in the natural world of trees and vines. Dead wood, broken shoots, and diseased branches need to be cut back in order for the plant to bear fruit. Jesus wants us to be healthy! He says as much himself: "By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." Take a look at your life today. Where are you bearing fruit? Where do you need to be pruned?

SVDP on EWTN: Episode 8 (630 AM Sunday, May 6 & 6 PM Saturday, May 12) Watch as members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul seek to grow closer to God through serving people in need. Vincentians take donated vehicles to fund programs to help people in need, run a summer camp for homeless children and fight hunger and homelessness in rural areas. See our Catholic faith in action through the good works of the volunteers of this special lay vocation.

This Week’s Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel, Jesus says “Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.” Indeed, by helping the poor we can “bear much fruit” and we find that with Jesus we can do everything. May God Bless you for all you do for us as we help others.

Meet our Vincentians

Faces of our Society: Julie Tannenbaum on becoming a Vincentian: “I wanted to help the poor.”

Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference at All Souls Catholic Church is a Catholic lay organization that leads people to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in our community. Vincentians witness God’s love by embracing all works of charity and justice, making no distinction in those served because in them we see the face of Christ.

Volunteers are needed to work directly with families and daily Society activities. Call the Assistance Hotline at 407.330.4400 to volunteer.

Reflect & Respond to Scripture (CPL, Inc.)

First Reading: Today’s reading records the initial reaction of the Disciples to Paul’s conversion. What do you think would have been the Disciples’ main concern?

Second Reading: John challenges his community to love one another in both word and deed. What obstacles stand in the way of this charge?

Gospel Reading: What do you think Jesus means when he says believers are “pruned” by God in order to bear more fruit?
