The Orlando Diocese recently announced that the diocese will be undertaking a program to “ramp up security at every single Catholic school, parish and other diocesan entities across Central Florida.” The program is outlined on the Orlando Diocese’s website. For more information, please go to: https://www.orlandodiocese.org/e-scroll/archive/parish-and-school-security-program-rollout/.

Over the summer, the All Souls’ team will refine our current process and work toward next steps of the All Souls Emergency Plan in conjunction with the diocesan efforts.

We invite you to join the St. Michael’s Ministry and to also welcome your thoughts and comments email us at: stmichaelministry@allsoulsmusic.com

El Ministerio de San Miguel comenzó a planificar en 2016 para asegurar que All Souls esté preparado para diversas emergencias, incluyendo incendios, emergencias médicas, meteorológicas, locales y otras situaciones.

Gracias por su cooperación en nuestros esfuerzos iniciales para limitar el acceso a la iglesia una vez que comienza la Misa. Agradecemos su paciencia con este esfuerzo.

La Diócesis de Orlando anunció recientemente que llevará a cabo un programa para “aumentar la seguridad en cada escuela Católica, parroquia y otras entidades diocesanas en toda la Florida Central”. El programa se describe en el sitio web de la Diócesis de Orlando. Para obtener más información, vaya a: https://www.orlandodiocese.org/e-scroll/archive/parish-and-school-security-program-rollout/

Durante el verano, el equipo de All Souls perfeccionará nuestro proceso actual y trabajará hacia los siguientes pasos del Plan de Emergencia de All Souls junto con los esfuerzos diocesanos.

Les invitamos a unirse al Ministerio de San Miguel y también a darle la bienvenida a sus pensamientos y comentarios. Email: stmichaelministry@allsoulsmusic.com

VÉRSO DEL EVANGELIO DE DOMINGO

Mientras cenaban, Jesús tomó un pan, pronunció la bendición, lo partió y se lo dio a sus discípulos, diciendo: “Tomen: esto es mi cuerpo”. Y tomando en sus manos una copa de vino, pronunció la acción de gracias, se la dio, todos bebieron y les dijo: “Esta es mi sangre, sangre de la alianza, que se derrama por todos”.

- Mc 14, 22-24

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What else is there to give when one has already given away their body and their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the one who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: when will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading: After receiving the law at Mount Sinai, Moses sealed God's covenant by sprinkling the blood of young slain bulls on the people and on the altar he erected. What do you think was the meaning of this ritual?

Second Reading: Hebrews speaks of Jesus as the "mediator of a new covenant" because his blood sacrifice brought eternal redemption for all believers. How is this a compelling explanation for the cross of Christ?

Gospel Reading: Today, we hear Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus speaks to the disciples about the Passover meal’s bread and wine as his body and blood which "will be shed for many." How do you think the disciples reacted to this revelation?
