The Sacrament of Reconciliation:
Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulsanford.org/reconciliation.

The Sacrament of Baptism:
Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father David Vivero to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage:
Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick:
Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound:
If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial:
Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies:
If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulsanford.org
Servanthood

“Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:43-44

Everyone has a gift, a purpose in life and maybe a talent that is yet to be discovered that can be shared to our community! Your stewardship means a lot! Thank you!

Father David

“Pero no será así entre ustedes. Por el contrario, el que quiera ser el más importante entre ustedes, debe hacerse el servidor de todos, y el que quiera ser el primero, se hará esclavo de todos.”

Mark 10:43-44

¡Todos tienen un don, un propósito en la vida y tal vez un talento aún por descubrir que se puede compartir con nuestra comunidad! ¡Tu mayordomía significa mucho! ¡Gracias!

Padre David

Will you bake for us?

Sweet Treats needs your skill and your oven.

Contact Anne if you can bake for our Sweet Treats Booth. Drop off donations of Cake/Brownie/Cookie mixes to the parish office or to the vestibule of the Church on SR#46. Thank you for your stewardship of time!
Make All Souls your parish home!

Our Council of Catholic Women

The fall Harvest Festival is going to be here very soon. As parishioners we can do a lot to help our beloved parish and community. Let us volunteer with our talents and blessings that our Lord has given us. The CCW Ladies are going to be working at the festival with the 50/50 drawing. Some of us are going to be helping at the different food booths, too! Next weekend after each Mass there will be a team of volunteers selling ride tickets, money raffle tickets, and family sponsorships, as well. Last but not least we will have tickets available for the Thanksgiving dinner at the 50/50 booth. May the Lord bless us all. Please keep praying for good weather during the festival. Amen

Estimado Padre y hermanas en Cristo, El festival del otoño (Harvest festival) está por llegar, en las próximas semanas nosotros como feligreses podemos hacer mucho para ayudar a nuestra querida iglesia y comunidad. Seamos voluntarios con los talentos y bendiciones que nos a dado Dios. Las damas del ccw estaremos a cargo de la carpa del 50/50. Algunas ayudaremos en los puestos de comida y más. El próximo fin de semana después de cada misa habrá un equipo de voluntarios vendiendo boletos para los juegos mecánicos, la rifa en efectivo, etc. Por último en el puesto de 50/50 tendremos boletos disponibles para nuestra cena anual de Thanksgiving. Qué el señor los bendiga a todos, y seguiremos orando para qué el clima permita que el festival sea todo un éxito. Amén

Bishop Noonan and The Catholic Foundation of Central Florida have informed us that All Souls Catholic Church has pledged $200,336.75 for the Catholic Appeal held in February. Our remaining pledge balance is $32,242.14. If you have not pledged please do so now. If you’ve pledged, please continue your pledge payments—which should be mailed directly to Our Catholic Appeal, P.O. Box 4905, Orlando, FL 32802-4905 or online at: http://www.cfof.org/Our-Catholic-Appeal.

Your generosity shows your understanding of the true breadth and scope of the ministries funded through Our Catholic Appeal, and shows the love of our merciful Father to those in need in our diocese. No gift is too small.

Add a red flag with your message to our Hall of Fame banner!

Thank you! The Faculty of All Souls Catholic School extends a very special “THANK YOU Beary Much!” to the Council of Catholic Women! CCW hosted a Bunko and the proceeds went to our school. They also brought in a tremendous amount of supplies that teachers typically purchase from their own pockets. It is Christmas in October. Thank you to CCW for your support!

Calling all Veterans & Active Military Personnel!

Veteran’s Day is the day we honor the men and women who have selflessly fought for our country and our freedom. It is also a remembrance of the veterans who gave their lives for us. On this Veterans Day, let us recognize the service and sacrifice of our brave veterans and their families.

On Friday, November 9th, All Souls Catholic School will honor veterans as well as current military family members at 7:50 am during our morning courtyard gathering. We would like to acknowledge all of our military family members during that time.

If you or a family member are a veteran or current member of the military, we invite you to join us! Please pick up the sign up sheet on the desk in the Narthex and return to the school office by Tues., Nov. 6th to let us know if you will attend.

Thank you to you and your family members for your service to our country.

“God bless you” is not just for sneezes. Bless your child today. If you think blessings can only come from ordained ministers consider yourself the “minister of parenthood.” Blessings can take many forms but the most natural (and simplest) one for ministers of the home are not formal prayers but prayers from the heart. Perhaps use the simple: “May God bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” You can add other spontaneous prayers for your child if you like. Adding a gesture like the sign of the cross or placing your hand on your child’s head emphasizes the sacredness of the time. Short rituals like this benefit from repetition. Blessing on a regular basis carries memories of past times and brings a moment of peace between you. You might want to bless your child at bedtime, when leaving the house, at times of sickness or change.

All Day wristband and single sheet ride tickets are now available for purchase at the parish office during regular business hours: M to F, 8 am to 4:30 pm.

Children’s R.C.I.A. Parent Meeting: All those parents with children in the Children’s R.C.I.A. with Mrs. Campbell on Wednesday evenings are asked to attend a brief informational meeting on Wednesday, October 24 in the Historic Chapel. This meeting is to provide parents with additional information about the program. Please mark your calendars, set your phone reminders, you do not want to miss this important meeting! See YOU there!!!

First Reconciliation/First Holy Communion Preparation: All information and preparation materials were given to those families with children preparing to celebrate their First Reconciliation (November 12th, 2018) and First Holy Communion (May 4th/5th, 2019). As a faith family and parish community please remember these families in your prayers as they walk this journey. Parents have been returned the right to prepare their children for the sacraments at home as a family, where faith is initially shared and learned. This is a very important and sacred responsibility. For those parents preparing your children, may you cherish this special time with your children as you both grow and deepen in your love of Christ. Remember the upcoming workbook due dates as well as our First Reconciliation Spirit Day Retreat. If there is anything we can do to assist you in this journey please do not hesitate the parish office. May God bless all of you.

Live the Liturgy: Persistence is really a virtue and the face of a strong character. We all have heard stories of people who have done incredible things in the presence of obstacles that appear insurmountable. These are real stories of real people who have lost limbs or faced other physical challenges. They have become amazing athletes and sometimes saints who overcame incredible difficulties in order to proclaim God’s love and presence. Where there is a strong will, there is a way. What do we want Jesus to do for us? Let your faith inspire you to find the courage to love in the face of bitterness, the faith to persevere when tempted to give up, and the hope to move forward when falling into despair. Jesus saves us from ourselves and gives us the clear vision to see as God sees.

"Darkness can only be scattered by light. Hatred can only be conquered by love." — St. John Paul II, Jan. 10, 2002

"Las tinieblas sólo pueden ser disipadas por la luz. El odio puede ser vencido únicamente por el amor." — San Juan Pablo II, 10 de enero de 2002

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Jesus asks a similar question in different Gospel passages, but the request of James and John is not repeated on any other occasion. “Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left.” They ask not for knowledge of God, not for crooked limbs to be straightened nor for the blind to see. They ask for power and authority. Jesus’ response should trouble them. “You do not know what you are asking.” "Can you drink the cup that I drink?" Jesus asks. "They said to him, 'We can.'" But what is Christ’s cup? Could James and John have possibly known it or understood it here at the height of Jesus’ ministry? Jesus’ cup is the cup of trial, of difficulty, of public ridicule. His final, thirsting sip occurs as he hangs on the cross. In Christ’s kingdom, drinking his cup and participating in his life are not the sharing of power the way we are accustomed. Jesus flips their paradigm. “Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.” The cup of Jesus is the cup of giving oneself. Look for opportunities to do good needs unnoticed. This week, consider one way you can drink the cup of Jesus!

Our Sanctuary light at the Church burns this week in loving memory of Doris McGhee, as requested by April McManus. May she rest in eternal peace.

Our Sanctuary light at the Chapel burns this week in loving memory of Bernice & David Williams, as requested by Donna & Larry Kinser. May they rest in eternal peace.

Our Altar Wine for the month of October is lovingly provided by the generosity of Kim Peters, in memory of Neil Joseph Fischer, Sr.. May he rest in eternal peace.
