The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm.
The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.
The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.
Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.
Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.
Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.
Make All Souls your Parish!

Welcome to our family

All are welcome here! If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls loves visitors and accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affiliation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: www.allsoulsanford.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

Welcome: Nelson, Mario & Jeico Gonzalez & Claudia Romero Brian Borman

Stewardship of Treasure

Lent is right around the corner. What a better way to start the Lenten season than to attend a Family Lenten Fair on March 9, 2019, from 9:00am-12pm at the All Souls Social Hall. The morning will start with some refreshments and prayer service. Then we will have fun trying to complete puzzles to earn the pieces you need to complete a simple and fun craft project to make a set of Resurrection Eggs. Start a new tradition to teach children the meaning of Easter and the story of Jesus resurrection using eggs filled with scripture sayings and surprise items to tell the story.

This event is free but we do need you to register so we are sure to have enough kits. To register please contact the church office at 407.322.3795.

“Community is a sign that love is possible ...” -Jean Vanier

The Sanctuary Light at the Church burns this week for Emile “Pop” Esler, as requested by Marcy & Vince Salas. May he rest in eternal peace.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture...

First Reading: In witnessing the revelation of God’s holy presence, Isaiah was deeply troubled by his own sin. Then the Lord freed him from his sin, and he was open to do God’s will. How would you describe your spiritual disposition after reconciliation with the Lord?

Second Reading: Paul reports to the Corinthians of the many people to whom Jesus revealed himself after he rose from the dead. Paul includes himself on that list, speaking frequently of God’s grace. Where do you see God’s grace in your life?

Gospel Reading: Luke offers us a lot of insights into the personality of Peter with his account of Jesus’ call of the first disciples. What do we know about Peter based on this call narrative?

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments.

Have you ever participated in various trust exercises, where you have to place your faith in others around you? Maybe it was falling backwards with your eyes closed while the person’s voice speaking to you seemed to drift further away. Maybe it was jumping from a height into people’s arms that didn’t seem strong enough to catch you. These activities were supposed to show you the meaning of trust and help you grow that trust in you for your comrades. Sometimes it worked. Other times, some prankster would actually let you fall, and then you learned to trust no one. So much for building up our ability to trust.

Trust is important, especially in our relationship with Jesus. He calls us all the time and asks for us to trust. However, because of doubt or a desire to follow our own will, we choose to disregard his request. After objection to Jesus’ request to lower his net into the water, Peter was humbled when he caught so much fish that the net began to tear. Peter was a fisherman by trade. Surely he knew what the catch was probably going to be that day. But Jesus asked him to follow his will. Peter wanted to follow his own. Peter realized that his trust from then on should be in the Lord.

Do you sometimes think your generosity will bear little fruit? Do you wonder if your surrender to God in stewardship living really amounts to much at all? Trust in Jesus, the one who calls you to this life. His word is truth, and he would never let you fall.

The Mass
Bishop Robert Barron’s Walk through the Liturgy of The Mass with Bishop Barron and you’ll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist. The Mass will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.

Classes will begin on February 20th and held weekly on Wednesday mornings from 10:30-12:00PM and Thursday evenings from 6:30-8:00PM at: Totally Yours Gift Store and Catholic Study Center, 105 E 1st Street, Sanford 32771
Contact info: Dolores Romano 516.233.0369 or by email at: dolores@totallyyoursgiftshop.com
The cost for the entire class is $20 and will include The Mass Study Guide. Payments can be made directly during the class (total of 7 classes in this series).
