 TOUCH MY WOUNDS! DO NOT BE AFRAID! **

“Blessed are those who has not seen but believe.” These are the very words of Jesus to Thomas when He went back and affirmed him saying, “Here, touch my wounds do not be unbelieving but believe.” We have our doubts and fears, too? Facing death is Frightening! While this gospel may be the last of the Four Resurrection scenes in the Gospel of John, it also has become the center piece for the Divine Mercy Sunday of Christ. Saint Maria Faustyna Kowalska somehow explained that this feast day where the Mercy of Christ emerges, proclaims that “if you receive Gods Mercy, let everyone know about it and share Gods mercy to others.” Therefore, when Jesus send Mary Magdalene to tell His brothers about His resurrection, we too have been told. We too were called to witness the true light of the resurrected Christ with courage and might that comes from the Glorified Body of Christ. By His resurrection we are now empowered by our constant connection and encounter with Christ through the sacraments of the Church that promise transformation and change to us all.

For indeed this is the day the Lord has made, a new life has emerged to lift our mortal bodies, let us rejoice and be glad! How consoling and beautiful it is to celebrate the Divine Mercy of God.

Please join us for our celebrations of Divine Mercy Sunday beginning at 1:30pm at the Church on SR#46.

Have a blessed week!

Father David

THE SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Catechist, Kathy Campbell spent the past nine months preparing eight children to become fully initiated members of the Catholic Church last Saturday during the Easter Vigil. Kathy met weekly with the children for classes in addition to breaking open the Word with them during Lenten Liturgy of the Word gatherings. The children expressed what Jesus means to them in this heartfelt poem. May we all approach Jesus with childlike love. Welcome to all those children, as well as our adult RCIA participants who were instructed by Father Ken Metz and who became new members of the faith.

FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION

FAITH FORMATION Registration will begin mid to the end of May and will go out to all families via e-mail. If you do not receive a Registration Form by June please contact the parish office at 407.322.3795 or e-mail hhooton@allsoulsanford.org. In an effort to go “green” all registrations will be done electronically. HOWEVER, Registration Forms will not be available on the parish website. For those families with children preparing for Sacraments (First Reconciliation, First Eucharist or Confirmation) additional forms will be e-mailed based on readiness for Sacrament Preparation (see below). All Souls Faith Formation is working to better accommodate the various faith needs of busy families by A very big heartfelt THANK YOU to all of the families in both our Parish Faith Formation Program and our school. I cannot believe that classes have wrapped up for the year. It seems like just yesterday we embarked on a very crazy journey. We survived it! Thank you all for your patience, advice, recommendations, constructive criticism and most importantly the gift of your CHILDREN! The year offered tremendous growth and insight. Hopefully we can continue to journey together in Christ for many more years. To our many catechists, thank you for all that you did and continue to do to help bring Jesus to all those we encounter. What an exciting year! God bless!

SACRAMENT PREPARATION & READINESS: All those families desiring First Reconciliation or First Communion for their child (ren), one year of formal Faith Formation (whether in a parish program or Catholic School) must be completed before introducing Sacrament Preparation. Families of children participating in The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (R.C.I.A.) for their children will attend one year of Faith Formation before Sacrament preparation is introduced to the family.

A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today’s Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.” Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving but believe.” In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. “Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name.”

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God’s voice speaking. We don’t get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

Quote: Humility is a virtue which Jesus Christ exceedingly loved, and which he came to teach the world. The most powerful weapon to conquer the devil is humility. ~ St. Vincent de Paul

Lord, you never deny a humble, contrite heart. Since humility is truth, teach me to recognize the good as well as the bad within me and be encouraged to change what needs changing.

This Week’s Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says: Peace be with you! Indeed, the mercy of God centers our heart in peace. In the month of April, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help our brothers and sisters in need to celebrate the peace of Easter. Thank You!

Reflect & Respond

First Reading: In Acts, Luke records many of the “signs and wonders” performed by the Apostles in Jerusalem in the aftermath of Jesus’ resurrection. Where do you see miraculous events occurring today in your faith community?

Second Reading: Today, we hear of one of the early visions of the resurrected Jesus that John received while exiled on the island of Patmos. What do you see as the main message Jesus was communicating to John in this initial vision?

Gospel Reading: The “doubting Thomas” resurrection narrative is one of the best-known Gospel stories surrounding Jesus’ resurrection appearances. What role does doubt play in your spiritual journey?
