“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I.” John 14:23-29

PASTOR’S MESSAGE

TWO HANDS OF GOD: Son and Holy Spirit
St. Irenaeus referred to the Son and the Holy Spirit as the two hands of the Father, “by whom and in whom, freely and spontaneously, He made all things saying, Let us make man after our image and likeness.”

This 6th Sunday of Easter reveals the promise of an advocate, the Holy Spirit. Although the Spirit of God may seem invincible and incomprehensible, He is not unknown, in fact. His works declare His presence in the life of the church. The Spirit guides and leads the church and believers not only in times of trouble, but likewise in our triumphs and successes. We look for answers in policies and procedures, Politics, Economics, etc.... yet nothing is more consoling than the Holy Spirit who assures us with an answer, even if it is an unexpected one. We witness this here at All Souls.

If the church is to be guided and led by the Spirit and Jesus promises to make all things new, how can we discern the work of the spirit under the clay of humanity?

PRAYER is our primary equipment to acquire the Holy Spirit. Please keep in your prayers this Memorial weekend our military personnel who sacrificed and died for our freedom. My best wishes and congratulations to our Graduating Students, Parents, Teachers, Benefactors and friends.

Blessings & Love to All! Father David

MAKE ALL SOULS YOUR PARISH!

All are welcome here...! If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls loves visitors and accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: allsoulsanfords.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

OUR MASS INTENTION BOOK

We still have many unreserved daily and weekend Mass Intentions open through the remainder of the year. Call or visit the parish office to reserve a Mass for a loved one, relative or friend, deceased or living.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

REFLECT & RESPOND

First Reading: Today’s reading is an excerpt from the Council of Jerusalem, where it was decided that Gentile Christians did not need to fully convert to Judaism to be saved. What are some pressing issues you think our religious leaders should address today?

Second Reading: One of John’s final visions sees the twelve tribes of Israel and the twelve Apostles united in God’s earthly kingdom. What does this teach us about contemporary Jewish-Christian relations?

Gospel Reading: In his farewell discourse, Jesus taught the disciples that the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, would be sent to teach us and remind us of his teachings. How do you see the Holy Spirit alive and active in our faith community?

Readings of the Week:

- Tuesday: Acts 16:22-34/Jn 16:5-11
- Wednesday: Acts 17:15, 22-18:1/Jn 16:12-15
- Friday: Zep 3:14-18a/Lk 1:39-56

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGING A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE.

Theology has two words to describe the space between God and us — transcendent and immanent. When we say God is transcendent, we speak of the One whose ways are not our ways, the placers of stars and maker of mountains. This is God who transcends our understanding, whose being goes beyond what we can know. When we say God is immanent, we mean His nearness to us. This is the way Jesus speaks of himself in today’s Gospel. “Whoever loves me keeps my word... and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

The Hebrews saw God as intimately involved with the fate of their people. But for all His care, God was still distant to most. He spoke through prophets and was represented in blazes of fire and pillars of cloud. Priests offered animal sacrifice to atone for the nation’s sins. While we still know that God is transcendent — any morning’s resplendent sunrise confirms this - Jesus introduces us to himself in a new way. Not only does Jesus walk among us, but the Holy Spirit dwells within us. “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit... will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you!”

How do you tend to view God? For many of us, the transcendent sense of a distant God might fill our perception. Today’s Gospel reminds us of something altogether different, something more intimate. Our God remains with us. He overcomes the confusion of the world and speaks peace to our troubled hearts. Our God is not far from us. The more we remain connected to Him and love as He loved, the more we will experience His nearness. We can have confidence in His presence and rest in His encouragement: "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”

OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL

Our parish goal is $174,339.31, which we have achieved. Additional funds will be returned to our parish to support our own special needs. As of May 17, 2019 we have raised $206,097.22 which is 46% gifts from 2,062 donor families (22.3% participation). Our Catholic Appeal is part of our commitment to stewardship and an opportunity for you to participate in the stewardship of treasure by pledging a sacrificial gift.

If you would like to make a pledge you may do so online by visiting www.cfocf.org/OCA/give.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS.

I often lead group prayer with similar words: "Give us the wisdom to know Your will for our lives and the courage to follow it as we seek to make our community a clearer reflection of the Kingdom of God.” The words acknowledge that we need to be about God’s will, not our own, and in that journey, we will bear greater witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ. We talk about how we are called to live a stewardship way of life and that we have been given many good gifts, but it is never truly about us. We are never the main thing. In the same manner, it is never really about our parish. Our combined stewardship may lead to many fruits, like an increased offertory or more vibrancy in parish life. However, it is always about the Kingdom of God and the King, Jesus Christ.

Through our stewardship, we allow our parish community to shine like a city on a hill for others to see and then be drawn toward Jesus Christ. It is about leading people to heaven. Our actions of stewardship do not point toward us but instead to the one who calls us to this life. By our practice of stewardship, we can transform our lives, our parish community, and then the world around us.

-Tracy Earl Weliver, MTS for LPI
UPCOMING EVENTS

ST. VINCENT’S CORNER

Did you know?... St. Vincent de Paul Vincentians at All Souls raised more than $15,000 during their 11th Annual Friends of the Poor Walk last fall? SAVE THE DATE: Our 12th Annual Walk takes place on Saturday, September 28, 2019!

Food Pantry Needs of the Week: Canned Pasta! Last Week: 252 items donated with a retail value of $494. Thanks!

This Week’s Vincentian Reflection: In today’s Gospel, Jesus says to us: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.” During the month of May, your gifts and generosity helped us bring love and care to our brothers and sisters in need by providing food, as well as keeping the lights on and saving families from eviction. Thank you!

LIVE THE LITURGY

To listen openly and be willing to dialogue are the most effective ways to discern how to solve a problem. We must be open to the Holy Spirit and, under his guidance, allow our opinions to be challenged and changed. Learning to trust the active work of the Holy Spirit in all things releases us from fear and brings us closer to living in the peace Jesus promised. Scripture, Church teaching and practice, the wisdom of others in our community, our relationship with God, and the promptings and stirrings of our hearts all have to be weighed when making important decisions. This is how the Holy Spirit keeps us faithful to Christ and the Gospel and the way the Church brings resolution to questions that inevitably arise.

MEMORIAL DAY

LET US NEVER FORGET OUR FALLEN SOLDIERS

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

John McCray, May 1915
