PASTOR’S MESSAGE

“As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy and they were continually in the temple praising God.”
—Gospel of John

ASCENSION

Where Jesus goes we go...
Paul’s letter to the Hebrews, offers a special spiritual dimension on the Ascension of Christ to Heaven. He gave confidence to the Hebrew people that Jesus has given us the “Right of Way” to enter the Holy place of God. “He entered into a place that is not made” by human hands but a place made by God Himself, and that by the sprinkling of our hearts, with His own blood, we were purified and washed clean. Away went our pride, laziness, anger, and all sorts of obstacles of life, which bring sin to us all. Ascension Sunday therefore celebrates also, the humanity of Christ transformed into the fullness of His Divinity. A New Life that brings redemption through the blood of His hands.

Therefore what hinders the Divine Life of Christ entering our humanity and prevents us from following Christ are the blockages of sin and guilt that blocks the heart—the place where we meet Jesus. What do we do?

Jesus said to his disciples: “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Where Jesus goes, we go. Have a blessed week!

Father David

OUR MASS INTENTION BOOK

We still have many unreserved daily and weekend Mass Intentions open through the remainder of the year. Call or visit the parish office to reserve a Mass for a loved one, relative or friend, deceased or living.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

REFLECT AND RESPOND

First Reading: Why do you think Luke opens the Acts of the Apostles by narrating the ascension of Jesus into heaven?

Second Reading: Paul speaks of Jesus’ resurrection and ascension into heaven as the source of divine wisdom for the unity of the Church. How do you think Jesus’ ascension unifies the Church?

Gospel Reading: The final episode in the Gospel of Luke is Jesus’ ascension into heaven. Luke tells us the disciples “returned to Jerusalem with great joy” on their way back from Bethany, about 1.5 miles away. What do you imagine the disciples talked about on this brief journey home?

HURRICANE SEASON HAS BEGUN...

Hurricane season traditionally kicks off on June 1st. But this past week, subtropical storm Andrea briefly popped up, marking the fifth straight year a named storm came in May or earlier.

The 2019 Disaster Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday was passed by the Florida Legislature and signed into law by Governor Ron DeSantis. This sales tax holiday begins Friday, May 31, 2019 and extends through Thursday, June 6, 2019. Peak hurricane season, however, begins in early September, so there’s still time to create a hurricane preparedness kit. Please take advantage of these tax-free days to purchase your storm supplies.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION OF STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS.

I travel a good bit, which means I am away from my wife and children for decent periods of time. But what makes it easier for me, besides being able to share the Good News of Jesus with people all over, is that I know I will not be gone forever. I will return, and then all will be well again. I have been called by God to be away from them at times, but God always brings me back to them.

Each liturgical year, we celebrate Jesus’ ascension into heaven. The feast speaks much to who Jesus is theologically. But in a very practical way, we also acknowledge that he has gone to be with the Father, but will return someday. Just as I return after a conference or visit with a parish to those God has entrusted to me and I love, Jesus will return to those entrusted to him and whom he loves.

But just like when I am away, there are things to be done. Life goes on for my wife and children with school, work, activities, and the basic responsibilities of family. In good stewardship, they are called to give generously to each other and devote themselves to God. Without them tending to things, upon my return I would find everything in turmoil and disarray. Then when I return, we become one again, and we are about the Lord’s work together.

The Lord ascended into heaven, but we are not to sit by quietly awaiting his return. Much needs to be done. He has entrusted much to us, expecting us to be good stewards. If you think that you have all the time in the world to complete the tasks at hand, think again. His return will be when we least expect it. It is time to be about our Father’s work.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS for LPI

“Did you not know that I must be about My Father’s business?”
Luke 2:49
VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Hoy, se nos recuerda que son el sufrimiento, la muerte, la resurrección y la ascensión de Jesús tomados todos juntos los que conforman un único evento el cual nos trae la salvación a la humanidad. El regreso de Jesús al Padre completa la obra que Jesús vino a realizar y nos muestra claramente el perdón, la misericordia y el amor que el Padre desea otorgar a sus hijos. La fe nos permite saborear el misterio del diseño de Dios y la esperanza que nos espera. Hoy, estamos llamados a mirar hacia arriba y ver que Jesús ascendió al Padre. Su misión está completa, y la nuestra recién comienza. Después de "mirar hacia arriba", ahora tenemos que "mirar hacia fuera" a nuestro mundo roto y entregar la Buena Nueva. Ahora tenemos una nueva perspectiva de la vida y podemos ver las cosas de manera diferente: la vida proviene de la muerte, la esperanza de la desesperación, la fe de la duda, la alegría de la tristeza y la libertad para aquellos que están prisioneros. ¡Ciertamente es una noticia extraordinaria! ¿Cómo difundimos la palabra?
