PASTOR’S MESSAGE

Feast of 50 Days
The Book of Acts 2:1-31 describes the day of Pentecost. I think a way to honor this blessed day in the life of the Church, one should find time, especially in our busy schedule, to take a break and read the story of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the followers of Christ again. Come on, pick up a Bible, or google this text, and let us all be present at the upper room.

“…suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them… every man heard them speak in his own language. They were all amazed and marveled.”

Parthians, and Medes, Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, Judaea, and Cappadocia…and strangers of Rome, Jews…and people from all over and various walks of life have witnessed this powerful act of God, the birth of the God’s new church in the company of His Apostles.

Prophet Joel: “And it shall come to pass in the last days, God says, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.”

May this Holy Day of Pentecost, also referred as the festival celebrated on the fiftieth day after Passover, by the grace of the Almighty God who willed that the Life, death, and resurrection of Jesus empower us to proclaim the Truth, and the Healing Power and Peace of God to all individuals in every nation, cultures, and way of life. May the splendor of God’s glory on the Feast of the Coming of the Holy Spirit, shine forth upon all who are scattered, confused, angry, and indifferent and have given up their faith in the provisions of God to reconcile our human conditions and limitation to the Glorious and Divine life of God.

Venite Sancte Spiritus (Come Holy Spirit)
Father David

MAKE ALL SOULS YOUR PARISH!

All are welcome here! If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls loves visitors and accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: allsoulsanford.org. Why not sign up today? STITCHES FROM THE HEART

Our Prayer Shawl Ministry called ‘Stitches from the Heart’ is looking for anyone that can crochet or knit to help make prayers shawls for those in need. In addition to the shawls we make for those that are ill or have another significant life event and request prayers; we also make shawls for Emmaus and RCIA candidates. You may also support the ministry with a gift card from Joanne’s or Michaels. You can leave the gift card at the Welcome Desk marked Stephanie Fuoco or drop off at the church office. Our next meeting will be on Sunday, June 23 from 2-4pm in the church office conference room, 301 W. 8th Street. If you have any questions please reach out to Stephanie Fuoco at sfuoco@cfl.rr.com.

OUR MASS INTENTION BOOK

We still have many unreserved daily and weekend Mass Intentions open through the remainder of the year. Call or visit the parish office to reserve a Mass for a loved one, relative or friend, deceased or living.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm.
The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.
The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.
Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.
Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.
Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

REFLECT AND RESPOND

First Reading: The descent of the Holy Spirit onto the Apostles marked the birth of the Church. One of the initial gifts of the Spirit was the overcoming of language barriers. What gifts of the Spirit do you think are most needed today?
Second Reading: Paul speaks of the unifying force of the Holy Spirit in the life of the community. Where do you see evidence of the Holy Spirit’s power to unite believers in your faith community?
Gospel Reading: In his farewell discourse, Jesus spoke to the disciples about the Father sending the Advocate (Holy Spirit) in his name to teach us and remind us of Jesus’ words. When do you find yourself thinking about Jesus’ words?

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Baby Bottle Campaign—If you have not returned your Baby Bottle to the church filled with your donations, please do so as soon as possible. If you have an empty baby bottle at home, but didn’t fill it up, would you please return it so we can use it in another campaign?

The Knights of Columbus social meeting is held the first Tuesday of the month, at the Columbus Club Meeting Hall, 2504 South Oak Ave, Sanford. Talk to a Knight for more information or call 321.262.5865.

OPEN YOUR HEARTS TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Vatican City, Pope Francis said Sunday, May 26, that the Church cannot remain static because the Holy Spirit guides the Church along the paths of history.
“The Lord today invites us to open our hearts to the gift of the Holy Spirit,” Pope Francis said May 26. The mission of the Catholic Church is characterized by docility to the work of the Holy Spirit, who continually makes the Risen Lord alive and present, he said.

In his Regina Coeli address from the window of the Vatican’s Apostolic Palace, Pope Francis reflected on Jesus’ words at the Last Supper, “The Paraclete, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name -- he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have told you.”

“As the moment of the cross approaches, Jesus reassures the Apostles that they will not remain alone—with them there will always be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, who will support them in the mission of bringing the Gospel to the whole world,” he said.

“Jesus returns to the Father, but continues to instruct and animate his disciples through the action of the Holy Spirit,” he added.

The pope recommended “docile listening to the World of God,” free from the worldly bonds of one’s opinions, strategies, or goals, which “often burden the journey of faith.”

Pope Francis pointed to the example of the Virgin Mary, “who, with humble and courageous faith, has fully cooperated with the Holy Spirit for the Incarnation of the Son of God.”

“As our Heavenly Mother, she always protects the Church and all of humanity,” Pope Francis said. “She helps us to let ourselves be instructed and guided by the Paraclete, so that we can welcome the Word of God and witness it with our lives.” Courtney Grogan

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS.

I am a sports fan, and perhaps you are one, too. I don’t follow all sports, but those that I do follow usually involve a team. There is something about a team of individuals coming together for the goal of victory that is compelling. A team is only as good as the sum of all its players. If you have all the right talent at the right positions, great things can happen. What is hard for a fan to watch is a team that has great talent but fails to achieve its goals because some players choose not to give their all to the team. Selfishness, apathy, or immaturity keep some from giving fully of themselves. The hopes and dreams of a team and fan base are dashed even though they had all they needed to be the best.

A parish is a lot like a team. Those in a parish community work together to achieve goals that ultimately lead others to Christ. We come together to give of ourselves to advance the mission of the parish. When we all are committed to fully giving our gifts and talents, fulfilling our position in the Body of Christ, then our hopes and dreams of transforming the world around us can become reality.

However, when we sit out on the sidelines, we hurt our team. When we hold back and choose not to give of ourselves, we diminish what is truly possible for our parish community. I believe God always provides our parishes with what they need to be fruitful and vibrant. His gifts to us exist in each other. If you think your parish could be so much more, than perhaps this week you should call your pastor or other pastoral leader and say, “Put me in coach!”

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Cuando nos enfrentamos a una decisión o un dilema, ¿dónde acudimos? Cada vez que tenemos que discernir el curso de acción adecuado, el Espíritu Santo está disponible como nuestro defensor y guía. Como cristianos, no miramos a nuestro mundo en busca de dirección, sino a Dios. Los dones del Espíritu Santo se nos dan para ayudarnos a encontrar nuestro camino hacia el pensamiento y la conducta apropiados. La sabiduría, ciencia, inteligencia, consejo, fortaleza, piedad y temor de Dios son herramientas perfectas para el discernimiento. Estos dones nos permiten mantener nuestras relaciones y perspectivas en el orden correcto. Es el Espíritu Santo quien abre nuestros ojos para ver lo que de otra manera pasariamos por alto y nuestros corazones para recibir a aquellas personas que de otra manera serían ignoradas. Pídele al Espíritu Santo que te ilumine hoy.
