PASTOR’S MESSAGE

Calculating the cost of Discipleship

Nothing is more compelling than Jesus challenging us all when he says, “Come to Me!” Not just to follow behind Jesus, but to Come in front of Jesus and listen to what Jesus has to say.

Pay attention to what? He knows we take pride as believers, as baptized, as members of the clan of God. He knows we strive to go to Mass. There are many of us who are like what the gospel describes as, “the great crowds traveling with Jesus.” However, Jesus wasn’t interested about the numbers or the great crowd. Rather, He wanted the people to understand the cost and the demands of Discipleship. Anyone who comes to Jesus should have more than the emotional, personal love we have for our parents. A follower should be able and fit to carry the challenges of life. A follower should be prepared and have the proper resources to accomplish his goals, etc.

As Jesus was straight forward in His Teaching on Discipleship, we too in our way of life should be able connect our faith with our life. To what extent do you deepen your baptismal choices in following or coming to Christ? How do you nurture others to practice Christian Discipleship more faithfully?

Father David
