Stewardship

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Source of Happiness

Happiness comes from God alone. But that does not seem to stop people from pursuing it in other ways.

Many of us think happiness comes from having money and spending it on possessions. The things of this world charm us. They bring joy to dreary days. But they have no permanence and they cannot bring eternal delight.

Others think happiness comes from human contact. Indeed, friends bring us happiness beyond what material goods can supply. But some people go from friend to friend, from relationship to relationship, seeking something more. The best of friends are committed to friendship, and they learn the nature of love. Yet even the love of friends is but a symbol of God's love for us. Human love shares in divine life, but human love is never perfect.

True happiness comes from God alone. St. Paul had lived in the humblest of circumstances and he had enjoyed the abundant generosity of benefactors. He told the Philippians, "In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, ... I can do all things in him who strengthens me."

All things—we can do all things in God who strengthens us. We can be rich or we can be poor. We can be alone or in the midst of others. We can be hungry or very well fed. But we can only be happy in God.

Our Parish Debt is Shrinking!

Wonderful progress has been made in paying down the debt that we owe to the Diocese of Orange for the loan that we were given to complete the building of the Family & Youth Center.

The PSA rebates continue to be applied to the loan.

As of September 28, 2014, we still owe $507,340.

Thank you to all who continue to make your pledge payments to our Pastoral Service Appeal and those who have made special gifts to pay off the loan. Your generosity has provided a home to our Christian Service outreach that feeds 200+ families in need each week; to Youth Ministry, which is forming our present and future leaders in their Catholic faith; and to St. Norbert Parish School; pastoral social events and many other ministries.

You are encouraged and invited to continue to make your PSA payments or make designated donations to help pay down our outstanding debt.

They are Remembered . . .

St. Norbert Church cordially invites you to attend our Annual Memorial Mass to remember and celebrate the lives of our loved ones who have passed through death to new life during this past year. The Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, November 2, at the 12 noon Mass. During the month of November the Church traditionally remembers those who have gone before us to new life. There will be a special shrine (altarcito) in our church throughout the month to display the pictures and memorial cards of our deceased loved ones. You may drop off these items at the Ministry

Center, or bring them to the Mass on November 2.

Please be sure to mark the backs of your pictures with your name, address, and phone number so we can return them at the end of the month. Framed pictures cannot be mailed back to you, but you may pick them up at the end of November.

Jog-R-Walk

The St. Norbert Catholic School Jog-R-Walk is quickly approaching on Thursday, November 6! This is an all-day event where our students and faculty walk, jog or run as many laps around the field as possible. Each participant acquires sponsors who pledge a per-lap gift, or give a lump sum to support our school. In order to ensure we provide the best faith formation and academic preparation for as many students as possible, we seek to supplement tuition and fees with fundraising, like our Jog-R-Walk. Your support assists us in making this a reality for the students of our parish school. We are looking for support for this event. Do you know someone who would donate their DJ services? Underwrite our T-shirts costs? Donate water and/or fresh fruit? If so, please contact Patty Bornhop at pbornhop@saintnorbertschool.org or (714) 637-6822 x204. Thank you for your consideration!

Weekly Parish Offering

Thank you for your continuing support of St. Norbert Parish. For the fiscal year July 1, 2014, to June 30, 2015, our parish budget calls for $27,900 to be donated weekly at the Sunday collection. The collection for Sunday, October 5, was $22,890.74. These collections are not only for operating expenses each week, but also for any ongoing repair work, upgrades, etc. to our parish facility. Your regular donations are needed for the good of St. Norbert Parish and the spread of the Gospel.

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend our parish will celebrate World Mission Sunday. This year we are invited to reach out and help build the Church in Mongolia, the world's youngest Catholic Church, as well as local churches throughout the Missions, in the most remote areas across our world. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace. Please keep the Missions in your daily prayers. Please come prepared next weekend to give generously in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. For more information, please visit www.iamamissionary.org

There is also the confusion of the Affordable Care Act and its potential impact on Medicare. Please join us for this very important presentation and be an informed health care consumer. Learn what you need to know to survive our health care system! What you don't know today, could impact your health care tomorrow. Supporting Catholic Education

Our parish school is in great need of increasing our Tuition Assistance Fund for the 2014-15 school year. The financial climate and unemployment have greatly affected many families in our school community. Can you help us support families who desire a Catholic education for their child(ren) but who are facing challenges in financial resources? Donations of any amount to this fund can be made as a memorial gift in a loved one's name, anonymously, or in your name, and paperwork will be completed for your tax purposes. More Parish Life

Priesthood Sunday

October 26 is Priesthood Sunday, a special day set aside to honor and pray for Catholic priests in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the central role of the priesthood in the life of the Church. Please participate in this opportunity to affirm our own parish priests: Fr. Patrick Rudolph, Fr. Agustín Escobar, Fr. John Nguyen, and Fr. Antonio Zapata by writing each a simple note.

Sample thoughts for a note: 1. Thank our priests for their dedication, generosity and leadership in our church. 2. State at least one way our priests personally enriched your life and thank them. 3. Prepare a spiritual bouquet with prayers, rosaries that you will say or have a Mass and prayers said for our priest.

On October 26: Give your note and/or spiritual bouquet to specific priests, leave it at the rectory, or place it in the special basket in the vestibule of the church.

Anyone interested in beginning the process of becoming Catholic, or with questions about Catholic belief, is invited to come any Thursday at 7:30 p.m. to our Inquiry sessions. Inquiry is an open-ended small group discussion format designed to respond to questions or to begin a person's faith journey toward Catholic sacraments. Bible Studies

Monday Mornings: The morning group will meet this Monday, October 13, in the Ministry Center Library at 9:15. New participants are still welcome to join this overview of the whole Bible which will continue until Easter. Each session consists of a video presentation and discussion.

This group will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Ministry Center Library

Wednesday evenings: On Wednesday, October 15, we will continue our 8-week Bible Study on the Prophets of the Old Testament. We will continue to reflect upon the relationship between the Prophets and the Kings of Israel from David to the Babylonian exile, and how the religion of the Israelites continued to develop through Divine revelation and the preaching of the Prophets. This week we will look at the prophetic writings of Amos, Hosea and Micah. This group meets on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Ministry Center Library.

If you plan to attend any of the above Bible Studies, please remember to bring your Bible to each session.

Prayer & Meditation with Scripture

Our prayer group will gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel this Tuesday, October 14. This hour of prayer time utilizes varying prayer forms each week. It is a time to meet with others in quiet and peace away from the busyness and noise of the world. We gather for prayer in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 7:30 p.m.

Wondering Why

Again, this week, we have another of Jesus' parables that can be puzzling. Remember that Jesus taught in the rabbinic style of parables, which were stories that were designed to draw the imagination and emotions of the hearer into a deeper understanding of the Kingdom of God. Today's parable comes from the section of Matthew's Gospel near the end of Jesus' teachings, which is called the Discourse on Eschatology, or in simpler terms, instructions on the end times. In it, Jesus is telling a story to make a comparison to the final judgment.

The feast the king is planning in the parable is no ordinary party, it is a wedding feast. Throughout the Old Testament, God is frequently portrayed in a spousal relationship with Israel. In the New Testament Jesus is sometimes referred to as the Bridegroom. This wedding is about the end of time when God and his people will be joined together in an eternal covenant of love.

The first set of guests to be invited refuse to come. A second invitation is made to them, but the messengers who bring it are mistreated and killed. From Matthew's perspective, the first invited to God's Covenant of Love are the Jews. Throughout their history, they had often failed to be faithful to God's covenant. When Prophets were sent from God to correct them and invite them back into righteousness, which means being in the right relationships, those prophets are abused and sometimes murdered.

Then, the king in the story, sends his messengers out to the public roads to invite in whomever they find. In Matthew's world, this would symbolize the Gentiles, those people who were not Jewish, who had never received the promise of redemption. Because the invitation to come to the feast had been ignored or rejected by the Chosen Ones, the first invited, now it would be offered to the outsiders.

Perhaps the most peculiar part of this parable is that when these second-invited guests arrive, one of them is thrown out of the party because he is not dressed in appropriate clothes. This is odd, if the instructions were to go out to the roadways and invite whomever is found, how could these people be expected to be dressed for a wedding? To understand the meaning intended one must become familiar with a bit of Jewish culture of the 1st century. At a wedding, the host would provide fancy robes for the guests to wear. To refuse to put on the robe that the host provided would be a great insult.

So, this guest is excluded not because he didn't have anything nice to wear, but because he refused to dress himself in what was offered. In a Christian context, this wedding garment is the baptismal robe. In order to celebrate at the nuptial feast of God and his people, the invited guests must clothe themselves in Christ.

As we apply the parable to ourselves, we might ask what gets in our way personally of accepting God's invitation. Are we too busy, too distracted, too self-involved to respond to the invitation of God's love?

And, we could ask ourselves, what "old clothes," old habits, old opinions, old prejudices, old grudges do we need to take off and put aside in order to put on the wedding garment of Christ and come into the banquet?

Ministerio Hispano

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Como católicos estamos invitados a “venir a la fiesta” en momentos significantes de nuestra vida. Los bautismos, las primeras comuniones, los matrimonios, las ordenaciones y las exequias normalmente se celebran dentro de la celebración de la Eucaristía. La ropa que nos ponemos — desde la vestidura bautismal hasta el sudario, desde el sofisticado atuendo de bodas hasta las sencillas albas blancas— refleja nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser fieles a Cristo hasta que lleguemos al banquete celestial que nuestras celebraciones eucarísticas anticipan. Todos están invitados al banquete. Todos están invitados a revestirse de Cristo. No todos responden a la invitación.

A menudo se ha hecho la pregunta de lo qué pasaría si una mañana de domingo, mientras oramos como siempre lo hacemos para que Cristo vuelva de nuevo, él se presentara ante nosotros. ¿Irábamos a su fiesta? ¿O acaso preferiríamos nuestra pequeña reunión privada en vez de la enorme multitud de personas que en realidad no queremos conocer? ¿Nos encontraría con la vestidura de la fidelidad que se nos dio en el Bautismo? ¿Dónde estaríamos en “ese día”?

¡La deuda de nuestra parroquia está disminuyendo!

Hemos hecho un gran progreso en el pago de la deuda que tenemos con la Diócesis de Orange por el préstamo que nos dieron para terminar la construcción del Centro Familiar y Juvenil. Los reembolsos recibidos de sus promesas a la Campaña para los Servicios Pastorales (PSA) han sido abonados al préstamo. Al 28 de septiembre, 2014 todavía debemos $507,340.

Muchas gracias a aquellas personas que continúan honrando su promesa y que han hecho donaciones especiales para el pago del préstamo. Su generosidad ha proporcionado un hogar para el ministerio de Servicios Cristianos, que cada semana proporciona alimentos a más de 200 familias en necesidad; alberga el Ministerio Juvenil, en el cual se forman en la fe católica nuestros actuales y futuros líderes; y la escuela católica de San Norberto, así como eventos pastorales y sociales, y muchos otros ministerios.

Les animamos e invitamos a que continúen con su promesa a la PSA o hacer donaciones designadas para ayudarnos a terminar de pagar nuestra deuda.
