Stewardship

Reflecting on God's Word

First apprentice, then journeyman, and finally master. That's the way someone "travels" when learning a trade. But before "setting out" one must find a trustworthy master who will accept him to study with her. Then he must commit himself to the "journey" of learning the trade. By watching and listening to the master, by imitating her example and following her advice, the disciple gradually learns her "ways."

The Scriptures this week present a journeyman, Jonah, and a master, Jesus. Why did people trust and follow them? People responded to Jonah because he was traveling the way of the Lord himself; he had repented and set out on the journey of discipleship. They responded to Jesus because he was a master worthy of their trust and because he invited them to be his disciples, to walk at his side and to study his ways. People followed them not because of their words, but because they knew the way.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Primero aprendiz, después obrero y por fin maestro. Ésa es la “travesía” de cualquier persona que está aprendiendo un oficio. Pero antes de “partir” hay que encontrar un maestro (o maestra) confiable que nos acepte a estudiar bajo él (o ella). Luego el estudiante tiene que comprometerse a hacer la “travesía” de aprender un oficio. Fijándose en el maestro, escuchándolo, imitando su ejemplo y siguiendo sus consejos, el discípulo llega a aprender “el estilo” del maestro.

Las Escrituras de esta semana presentan a un obrero, Jonás, y un maestro, Jesús. ¿Por qué la gente confió en ellos y los siguieron? La gente le respondió a Jonás porque él iba por el camino del Señor, se había arrepentido y partió para hacer la travesía del discipulado. Le respondieron a Jesús porque él era el maestro digno de la confianza de ellos y porque los invitó a ser sus discípulos, a caminar junto a él y a estudiar su estilo de vida. La gente los siguió no por las palabras que ellos dijeron, sino porque conocían el camino.

Trapped in Paradise

January 27, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Emmaus Spiritual Ministries in Orange

Seventy-five years ago, four Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange were trapped on an island in the South Pacific during WWII. While running from the Japanese, the Sisters kept a detailed diary of their experience. After months of hiding and surviving, they were rescued by a submarine on New Year's Day, 1943. Come learn more about their faith and courage during this challenging journey. Proceeds from the sale of their book, Trapped in Paradise, will be donated to a veteran's organization in Los Angeles that provides immediate counseling services to veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan wars.

To register, contact EmmausSpiritualMinistries.org, or call (714) 744-3172. The registration fee of $25 will include a complimentary copy of the book.

Emmaus Spiritual Ministries is a ministry of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange, 434 S. Batavia Street, in Orange.
