We exist for one reason: to come to know and be formed by the Word of God and the Message of Jesus. When we gather in prayer and worship, in service and community, we assemble as disciples and friends with the Lord in our midst. Rooted in our Roman Catholic tradition, we are proud of our parish heritage and hopeful for our future.

Blast From the Past(or)

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 16, 2018

A few days ago our great Nation paused to mark the somber anniversary of the attacks of September 11, 2001 and rightly recall the scores of men and women who were killed simply because they lived in the freedom of this Country. We also revered the heroic firefighters, police and first-responders who died trying to save them. Remembrance is essential to Christianity (do this, in memory of Me). But sometimes self-preoccupation and the grind of daily concerns can cause even our most foundational memories to dim and fade. Life happens. That's why I was moved this week when our young seminarian, John, asked about 9/11. As a Colombian guy with his own unique culture and history, John desired to participate in our memory of that Day. He asked if people remember where they were that morning. 'Of course, everyone does.' 'People from this parish lost loved ones and still mourn.' When asked if he recalled where he was that Day, he politely responded that he was 'only five years old at the time.' Ok. At that point, I abruptly ended the conversation; 'hey pal, no one likes a smart guy' (aaahhh to be young again). Kidding aside, it is encouraging when the young refuse to allow us to forget and when they perpetuate the good, the true and the just which are so often diluted in the cacophony that is our culture. Sadly, while many Americans treat the blessings of this 'Nation so conceived' as entitlements, it was John's passionate desire to learn about our Country on 9/11 that gave life to Jesus' words, 'has no one but this foreigner returned to give thanks' (Lk 17: 18)? Looking out the rectory windows that evening, I spied the radiant, beautiful, brand new American Flag flying on the STM flagpole. Anne Kostyak donated that amazing flag because it needs to be flown for a Nation that remembers. That Flag hearkens memory of true sacrifice which is not made in wealthy athletes' refusal to stand for her, but in those who died for her meaning. In our collective mourning, Isaiah's words spur us on: The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. I have set my face like flint knowing that I shall not be put to shame. He is near who upholds my right. If anyone wishes to oppose me, let us appear together...

God Bless you!!!!!!!!!! God Bless America!!!

Thank You for Your Stewardship of Time, Talent and Treasure!
