ALL MINISTERS: The FINAL AUGUST MINISTERS SCHEDULE has been released. Copies are available in the sacristy. Thanks, Jack

My dear parishioners,

Today's passage comes from the beginning of the Bread of Life discourse (John 6:1-71), so called because Jesus teaches that he is the Bread of Life, the food that will forever sustain those who believe in him. The multiplication of the loaves is the fourth sign that appears in the Gospel according to St. John. It is the only miracle story found in all four gospels (occurring twice in Mark and Matthew). The main reason could be that it was seen as the anticipation of the Last Supper and of the consequent Church's celebration of the Eucharist. The story is filled with images that we now associate with the Eucharistic celebration: "Jesus took the loaves of bread," "gave thanks", and "distributed them." This ritual reminds us of the daily bread we ask for when we pray the Our Father. The story symbolizes the food that is really available through Jesus. The twelve baskets of leftovers may point to the banquet of the Messiah at the final coming of the kingdom. This miracle also looks backward to the feeding of Israel with manna in the desert at the time of the Exodus (Ex 16), a miracle that according to some Jewish beliefs would be repeated in the messianic age (2 Baruch 29:8).

Today's reading offers three significant messages:

The Jewish belief in a God who always provided for his people is reflected in this miracle. The difference is that Jesus did not let the disciples just watch. He made them participate.

The bread that is shared in solidarity always gets multiplied by the power of God.

God never abandons those who share from their poverty to nourish others.

Fr. Pawel Bala
