A Message from the Pastor

November 15, 2015

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear parishioners,

Last weekend at the 11:30 a.m. Sunday Mass, we had our annual Remembrance liturgy, as we prayed in a special way for all those who have died over the past year. The candles brought forth in procession for each person named create a light to shine forth, and our voices were raised in song together: “We remember.” I want to thank everyone who assisted with the Mass and the Family Brunch following. In particular, thank you to coordinators Kathie Brach, Rita Buedden and Laura Hills, to sacristan Ryan Zambrotta, and to Music Minister Andrew Monticello.

I’m happy to tell you that following our recent mailing to all parishioners, we are now at 98.18 percent of our $533,000 pledge goal for the Living Stones Campaign of the Newark Archdiocese. Remember – after the first $50,000 collected, HALF of the money comes back to the parish for special projects ... and if we go over goal we then start to collect 60 percent! If you did not yet pledge, please consider doing it now, as we are hoping to wrap up the pledge drive soon and are SOOOO close to goal. May be YOU will be the one to put over us over the top! <http://rcan.org/wearelivingstones>. I am hoping that this campaign will bring in the funds we need to fulfill our dream of a new inviting plaza in front of the church – with paver stones, benches, lighting, new landscaping and walkway to the street (see the diagram on display in the vestibule). Imagine the great welcome this would create toward the community passing by our busy intersection – and the great place to gather before and after Mass!

As you reflect on your weekly and special occasion giving to the parish, please keep in mind the great convenience of FaithDirect – online giving! It does away with the hassle of weekly envelopes, checks and fumbling around for loose cash. Instead, you can carefully, prayerfully decide what financial sacrifice you are choosing to make – and even adjust it easily whenever you like! It also has the benefit of simplifying parish accounting and helping to stabilize our budget. Simply go to www.faithdirect.net and use our parish code, which is NJ513. Join the 60 Guardian Angel parishioners (including me!) already using it!

Our call as the baptized to be people of loving Christian service is not only directed toward the members and needs of the Church, but toward everyone! As we observe Stewardship Sunday this weekend, this is a particularly good time to bring to your attention several opportunities to help those in need.

- Every week, you can bring nonperishable food for the Center for Food Action. Simply place it at the food cupboard in the church vestibule. During November, the most-needed items are cans of fruit and cans of coffee.
- Through Religious Education we are also collecting many food items for Thanksgiving meals for families in our area. Please drop off food in the parish AUDITORIUM on Thursday November 19th between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. These drop-offs can include frozen turkeys,

NEW PARISH ORGAN

The new organ is here and sounds beautiful! We replaced our old organ, which was deemed irreparable, with a new organ. The organ company agreed to apply the entire purchase price ($6,000) of our old organ toward the purchase of a brand new organ. After much research an organ was chosen at a reduced cost of $32,420 was ordered and purchased.

With the approval and support of our parish trustees and Finance Council, the funds for this unbudgeted purchase will come from the separate “Capital Campaign” account, so it will not affect our regular budgeting. However, it is still an expense of some significance. If you would like to make a restricted donation to help cover the cost, we would gratefully welcome it. Any donation should include a notation on the memo line: “Restricted – organ purchase.” The congregation’s singing is an essential part of the church’s worship, and the organ has pride of place.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTIONS

November 15, 2015

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.” (MARK 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond?

NOVEMBER CENTER FOR FOOD ACTION

The Center for Food Action in Mahwah provides 85 families each week a months worth of groceries, thus serving approximately 340 families on a monthly basis. The Center has identified Cans of Coffee and Cans of Fruit as needed items for the month of November. This month our goal is to collect 85 Cans of Coffee and 85 Cans of Fruit each week to support the number of families the CFA serves on a weekly basis. The week ending November 7 there were 26 cans of coffee and 31 cans of fruit among the items donated. If each parish family donates at least one Can of Coffee and one Can of Fruit on a weekly basis throughout November, we can meet our goal. They can be dropped off at the Food Pantry in the back of the Church. If you have any questions or comments feel free to contact Sue Zitolo at 201-934-9372, szitolo@aol.com or John Lowe at 201-327-9397, john.lowejr@att.net .

as well as fresh fruits and vegetables.

- It is also time for our annual collection to support AIDS ministries in the Archdiocese. Items especially needed are coffee, tea, sugar and toiletries. Please bring items to church next weekend (November 21-22).
- Please donate new or gently used coats for men, women and children this month by placing them in the box in our church vestibule. They will be distributed in Paterson – so many in need so close to home!

In Christ,

Father Charlie

CORNERSTONE GIVES THANKS THIS WEDNESDAY

Thank you to all the participants who have come together to bring the Women's Cornerstone Retreat March 11 and 12, 2016. Our prayer in Discovering Our Gifts at the last meeting was that we will see them and use them for the good of all. We shared our experience in using the Stepping Stone exercise to get in touch with the events in our lives which were transformative. We look forward to Brenda Job and Noreen Prior sharing their stories this week as we give thanks for all the ways God is present to us. We thank Judy Bruinooge for refreshments. Our next meeting is this Wednesday, Nov. 18 in the Rectory dining room at 7:30 p.m.

Blessings, Carolyn Blake

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Mt 25:40).

HELP
Jesus
IN DISGUISE

Today, we are reminded that Jesus identified himself with our poorest brothers and sisters. The Catholic Relief Services Collection serves Jesus in the victims of human trafficking, in those who suffer from unjust laws, and in those who need pastoral care and humanitarian assistance across the globe. Through your support with today's Collection, you help Jesus in disguise.

YOUTH NEWS

Mini Family Bible Study

Reading: Mark 13: 24, 30-32

Read through the complete passage to start then go through the verses asking questions such as:

v. 24 “But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light”

Questions: This passage is talking about the coming of Christ but does it make you feel very hopeful? Why is it okay that the sun will be darkened and we won't have any source of natural light? What will replace that natural light source? Are there times when you feel like the sun has figuratively darkened in your life? How can this passage encourage us in those times?

v. 30-31 “Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away.”

Questions: Who is Jesus referring to when He says “this generation”? What does He mean when He says that Heaven and earth will pass away? What does this passage tell us about the power of Christ's words? Do we acknowledge Christ's words as alive, everlasting, and supernatural? How would acknowledging this change the way we read scripture?

v. 32 “But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.”

Questions: Does it make you feel relieved or anxious that there is no way to know when the “end times” will be? There are so many other things like this that only the Father knows about, how do you pray to the Father when it comes to the unknown? What are practical things we can do to increase our trust and confidence in the Father? What are some ways that He has acted in your life or answered your prayers that have increased your trust in Him? How can we share our knowledge of a trustworthy God with the world?

Safeguarding Children & Addressing Abuse The Archdiocese Acts to Protect Youth and Children

Archbishop Myers has stated categorically that the first responsibility of the Archdiocese is to protect children and young people and to provide healing and compassion to victims of abuse.

The Archdiocese of Newark requires all staff and volunteers working with children and youth to undergo background checks and receive sexual abuse awareness training. More than 20,000 Clergy, Religious and Lay people have received this training and undergone criminal background checks.

Nearly 95,000 children annually receive safe environment training through our Catholic schools and through opportunities offered to public school students in our religious education programs.

The Archdiocese makes use of the services of a Licensed Clinical Social Worker to be the first contact with individuals bringing allegations of abuse so that counseling and other support services can be extended immediately – even before a determination can be made regarding the validity of an allegation.

A full-time Office of Child and Youth Protection dedicated to supporting the work of protecting children works with parishes and schools to ensure that safe environments are in place throughout the Archdiocese.
