21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastors Desk

St. Junipero Serra

Born in 1713 on the island of Mallorca, Spain, Miguel Jose Serra entered the Franciscans at age 16. He took the name of Junipero, after Francis of Assisi's favorite companion. It would not have surprised anyone if Junipero Serra had devoted his life to academia. He taught theology and did well. But the 5'2" professor decided his calling was the missions and in 1750 went to serve in Mexico. On the way, his leg was bitten by mosquitoes and became infected. As a result, he suffered a painful limp that remained with him the rest of his life. Fr. Serra worked in north-central Mexico for 17 years. When the Franciscans were asked to take over the missions from the Jesuits in Baja, California, the 54 year old priest volunteered. In California he founded missions in San Diego and Monterey. He died in 1784 and is buried at the Mission San Carlos Borromeo on Carmel-By-The-Sea, California. On May 9, 1985, Fr. Junipero Serra was declared venerable. He was canonized by Pope Francis in Washington, D.C., on September 23, 2015.

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Isaiah portrays a time when people from many nations will gather in Jerusalem and proclaim God's glory. God's messengers will teach many nations about God. Just as the Israelites bring offerings, these messengers will bring people from all nations to worship.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

The Hebrews are told that God disciplines those he loves. When a parent disciplines a child, the child usually learns what is expected of him. The Hebrews are encouraged to face life's trials as a form of discipline, and attempt to learn something from them.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Jesus warns that the door to God's kingdom will be locked for those who ignored his wishes. Many people will come from all nations and take their place in God's kingdom. Others will not be recognized by God, and he will reject them.

Meditations

From Biblical times to the present, people have often thought that if God was pleased with them, then good things would happen to them. If you experienced trials and troubles then you must have done something "wrong". That is not the message of the New Testament. It is not the example we are given in Christ's life. Good things are not rewards nor are bad things punishment. Both can be used to deepen our relationship with God. How do you see the good and bad things in your life. Do you see them as opportunities to grow closer to God?
