You Can Change The World

Through the gift of free will, humans can choose to do good or choose evil. Most choose good, but when we learn of suffering caused by evil in the world, we can feel discouraged and powerless. Yet, through God, we have the power to transform the world.

Don't depend on you. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight" (Proverbs 3:5). Fixing this fallen world is beyond our abilities alone. God has the power, however, to bring true peace and healing to the world. Lay all your concerns at God's feet and then have confidence that he is at work.

Choose the good. Evil can be contagious. Sometimes the best way to live a life of good is to avoid bad influences or people that can pull us away from God. "...Pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord" (2 Timothy 2:22). The bonus? Your good life may inspire others.

Sharpen your Sacramental sense. Sacraments are opportunities to share in God's divine life. These supernatural encounters with God strengthen our will, enlighten our minds and inspire us to a closer relationship with God. Don't miss an opportunity to meet Christ at Sunday Mass or the Sacrament of Reconciliation. His grace will keep you strong.

Peace & Blessings,
Fr. Mark

Seminarian Corner

Jesus' question to his disciples in this week's Gospel is one that he asks of us today. "Who do you say that I am?" Who is Jesus for you? Is he merely a historical figure, a man who had some good ideas, a great philosopher? Is he a man who was relevant for past generations but not for us? Or is Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, our loving friend? Let us pray that we have the courage to say to Jesus "You are the Christ." Once we can enter into a loving relationship with Jesus, we can go out and change the world. Once we know Jesus we can never be the same.

Frank Lennie, Seminarian

On Tuesday, September 25th at 7:30 pm, St. Pius X will be hosting the Silver Rose. Please join with the Knights for a prayer service as we reaffirm our dedication to the sanctity of human life.

24th Sunday Of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 50:5-9a

Isaiah describes the willingness of the Suffering Servant to submit to the persecution of his enemies. This willingness stems from true faith in God, and the knowledge that the Lord will always be his help.

Second Reading: James 2:14-18

James states that if someone is hungry and you wish them well but do not help them, you have done them no good. He compares this to stating your faith, without backing it up with your actions. He reminds us that we must show our faith through our good works.

Gospel: Mark 8:27-35

Jesus taught his disciples that as the Messiah, he had to suffer much, be put to death, and rise three days later. Peter began to disagree and Jesus reprimanded him for judging by human standards rather than by God's. He told them that whoever would be willing to lose their life for the sake of Jesus and the gospel, will in fact preserve their life forever.
