Pastor's Gratitude: "At the First Communion Masses we failed to acknowledge the hard work of preparing our 2nd grade children for this significant event in their lives. Mary Ramsden, the Director of Religious Ed., her Catechists and Andrea Duplain, Sec. of Religious Ed., deserve our thanks and praise for a job well done."

Parishioner's Response: "I only come to Mass twice a year and I'll be #?@%...I'm not going to watch it on television. So said someone leaving the Ryan Room on Easter Sunday."

VIVERE CHRISTUS AWARD

Each year Bishop Serratelli presents this award to a parishioner or parishioners from each parish for outstanding participation in parish life. The recipients this year are Conor Spillane and his Omah and Opah, Katherine and Stefan Missbrenner. Conor is involved in so many ministries they are too numerous to count. Kathy is a Eucharistic Minister, a third order Carmelite and a former Catechist and a member of a bible study group. Stefan is a faithful contributor and Conor's chauffeur. Congratulations!

A "HEARTY" ♥ THANK YOU FROM R.I.S.E.

A special thank you to the Knights of Columbus for hosting a Community Breakfast on 4/24 to benefit the teens of R.I.S.E. and their mission trip to upstate N.Y. in July. The generosity of the OLM parish, community members, and anonymous donations was beyond amazing! Nearly $3000 was raised. Combined with our previous fundraising efforts, we can now see our end goal in sight. Thank you for supporting all those involved in R.I.S.E as they help to do God's work of helping those in need.

“ALL YOU NEED IS LOVE”

Did you know that Jesus prayed for you? Yes, in today's gospel we find Jesus praying for His apostles, after which He prays for "those who will believe in Me through the apostles' word". That means you. Jesus then goes on to ask His Father to allow the same love that lives in Him to live in you. Is the love of Jesus living in you? Our 2nd reading gives us more insight as to what Jesus expects from His followers. He tells us "I am the Alpha and the Omega, I am coming soon, I will give to each according to their deeds. Blessed are they who have washed their robes, so as to have the right to the tree of life". You have been washed with the waters of baptism, anointed with oil of the Catechumens and sealed with the Holy Spirit, but have you kept your robes clean with the sacrament of confession? Jesus is looking for those souls who have filled the world with deeds of love and mercy. Do you fit His description? What does Jesus mean when He says: "I am the beginning and the end, the first and the last." He is telling you that He is all you need, for all you need is His love, and His Love is meant to be given away. Want to know more? For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60

Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit, and described seeing Jesus standing at God's right hand. Then he was dragged away and stoned to death before many witnesses who did not believe his words. Before dying he cried, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."

Second Reading: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

John hears a voice saying, "Remember I am coming soon!" This messenger for Jesus says that he will come to reward those who are deserving. Those who hear the call of the Spirit are encouraged to answer by accepting Jesus.

Gospel: John 17:20-26

Jesus prays for all the people who will believe in him through the words of his disciples. His prayer is that the world will live in unity, with Jesus living in us as he lives in God. Although we have not known God, we know Jesus was sent by God because of his love for us. He prays that this love will live on in all people.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Father of all Mercy, we thank you for this season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, give all your people a clearer understanding of what is sin, and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, the profound dignity of every human life, including the vulnerable unborn children. Give us grace to defend our brothers and sisters in the womb
