2017 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

For your convenience, you are able to make an on-line gift to the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal by going to www.2017appeal.org and following the instructions. You can either make a one-time gift or a pledge with monthly payments made automatically for your convenience. More and more parishioners are taking advantage of this option, so please consider using this method today.

Whether it is a pledge, a one-time gift, or an on-line donation, your support is greatly needed. Every gift counts! Please participate in the 2017 Appeal!

OLIVEWOOD GIFTS FROM THE HOLY LAND

Holy gifts will be on sale THIS weekend, Sept. 23/24 after all Masses. Handcrafted by local artists and families from the Holy Land, proceeds for these sales benefit many since the money earned makes up to 65% of the income of these Christians in Bethlehem. Please stop by the tables in the narthex.

DISASTER RECOVERY COLLECTION SEPT. 30/OCT. 1

The devastation by recent hurricanes is staggering. Bishop Serratelli has asked us to take up a 2ND collection on Sept. 30 & Oct. 1, to help the hundreds of thousands suffering from the effects of the hurricanes.

SEVERAL SOURCES AT MASSES NEXT WEEKEND

Several Sources Pro-life shelters for mothers, who seek to give life to their children, rather than sacrifice them through abortion. A representative will speak at Masses next weekend, Sept. 30 & Oct. 1 asking for your assistance to save the life of a child.

4GET ME NOT THIS WEEKEND

Thank you for your continued generosity! The non-perishable food you donate is very much needed and welcomed at the Fr. English Food Pantry in Paterson. If you would prefer to donate cash, please leave your donation in the basket at the back of the Church. They use it to purchase bulk food for the pantry.

MASS INTENTIONS

There are many Masses between now and Christmas which do not have any intentions listed. If you would like to remember a family member or friend, living or deceased, in a special way, a Mass intention is a wonderful way to do so.

"FIRST & LAST"

In today's society "justice" is a word widely proclaimed from many different viewpoints. Is today's gospel a "just" viewpoint? Jesus tells the parable of a landowner (God) hiring laborers at four different times during one day. Some worked many hours and others worked less. All got paid the same amount regardless of the hours they worked. Is this justice? What can justify the seemingly unjust payments? Your reaction to this gospel should tell you a lot about your own spiritual consciousness. It should expose your littleness and reveal your need for a Savior; we are not big enough to love and forgive the way God can. As a sinner, do you really want God's justice or should you desire God's mercy at the finale? What will happen when you reach heaven's door and find out it is filled with repentant sinners and unworthy souls. In our 1st reading God tells Isaiah "Your thoughts and ways are not my ways, for my ways and my thoughts are above yours." God's mercy and love is so great that a sinner is allowed to steal heaven at the very last breath they take, as the Good Thief did at the Crucifixion. If you have been fortunate enough to have lived a life filled with Christ, then joy has been yours. Sinners who only know Christ for a short time long for more and their cries are heard by our merciful God. IN GOD'S EYES, THERE IS NO "FIRST OR LAST". ONLY THOSE WHO CRY OUT FOR THE LORD'S GENEROUS MERCY. Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to him for mercy.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes "to be freed from this life and to be with Christ," but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day's wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, "I am free to do as I please, am I not?" Jesus reminds us through this parable that "the last shall be first and the first shall be last."
