PRO-LIFE

LENTEN PRO-LIFE PRAYER

Father of all Mercy, we thank you for this season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you, in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, give all your people a clearer understanding of what is sin, and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, the profound dignity of every human life, including the vulnerable unborn children. Give us grace to defend our brothers and sisters in the womb by our prayers, our words and our self-sacrificing actions. We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“CHRIST IN YOU”

Congratulations to our candidates, Lyndsee Manna and Christopher Flammer, who successfully completed “The Rite of Continuing Conversion and Acceptance”. Today’s gospel has this opening line, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.” I ask you, would you like to see Christ? The gospel continues with “whoever loves his life loses it, but whoever hates his life in this world, will preserve it for Eternal Life and whoever serves me must follow me, for where I am, there also is my servant.” Christ saw your suffering and chose to join Himself to it. In His obedience to His Father, He caused suffering to become a force for Your Salvation. In difficult and despairing times, know that you are not alone. Your suffering is forming you into resembling your Savior, Jesus. Where are you looking for Christ? Where have you seen Christ? If you love Christ, if you serve Christ, then you don’t have to go far to see Christ...just look in the mirror, for Christ should be looking back at you. MAY YOU ALWAYS REFLECT GOODNESS, MERCY AND LOVE IN EVERY SEED YOU SOW, TO EVERY HEART YOU KNOW AND MAY YOU SEE CHRIST GROW IN YOU.

Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

The Lord comforted his people, who were exiled to Babylon, by telling them of the new covenant he planned to make with them. The Lord declared he would write his law upon their hearts, and that he would forgive their evil and forget the sins they had committed in the past.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

Though God could have heeded his Son’s prayers and spared him suffering, Jesus accepted his Father’s will. Through his suffering, he learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation for all people.

Gospel: John 12:20-33

Jesus was afraid of the suffering he knew he must face. Yet he explained just as a grain of wheat must die to be harvested, he had to face his hour of suffering to glorify his Father’s name. Jesus explained that once he was lifted from earth, he could draw all people to himself, lifting them to eternal life.
