PRO-LIFE CORNER

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen.

Pope John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, 1995

“FIRST PLACE”

Our readings today speak to you about pride, disobedience and sin. They also give you the formula for Intimacy with God. As far back as the beginning of the Old Testament in Genesis, we find the man and the woman blaming each other, and the serpent, for their disobedience. This stems from the Sin of Pride. This deadly sin results in separating the Creature from the Creator and has left humans carrying the stain of sin and the attitude of “I can do no wrong so it can’t be my fault.” The sin of pride makes it so difficult to take responsibility for our failures, to own our mistakes, or to say, “I’m sorry.” All sin leads to poor choices, breaks in relationships, lapses in morality, shirking of duties, etc. God, in His kindness, gives you the Sacrament of Confession, because He alone knows your weaknesses, woundedness and heavy heartedness. It is in Confession that we receive the Grace to rise above sin and harmful pride. It is through the priest that we receive Christ’s Mercy and Absolution. Do not think you are above the Sacrament of Reconciliation, for Jesus tells you in today’s Gospel, “all your sins will be forgiven, but whoever sins against the Holy Spirit is guilty of an Everlasting Sin.” It is the Holy Spirit, who moves, lives and has its Being in all the Sacraments, given to you, out of love for you. We find the formula, for Holiness and Intimacy with the Lord, when Jesus says, “Who is my mother and brothers? Whoever does the will of God is my brother, sister and mother.” Surrender your pride by exchanging your own will for His will. Decide to stop making excuses for living a life separated from the Lord, who loves you unconditionally. Reject Satan and his lies, reject the world’s false promises of fulfillment; instead Trust and follow the Way of Christ and He will raise you up so you can enjoy a “First Place” spot on Jesus’s Family Tree!

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 3:9-15

God asked Adam why he ate the fruit from the forbidden tree. Adam blames his companion, who in turn blames a serpent. God then told the serpent it would be banned from other animals, and be an enemy of humanity.

Second Reading: II Corinthians 4:13—5:1

Paul describes our belief that “He who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise us up along with Jesus.” Although our bodies grow weaker, each day our inner strength grows. Paul also describes our burdens as light when compared to the eternal rewards we can attain.

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Some of the scribes felt that Jesus was possessed and claimed that he expelled demons with help from Satan. Jesus silenced them by asking, “How can Satan expel Satan?” Jesus also warned them that although many sins would be forgiven, blasphemy against the Holy Spirit would not. Jesus was then told that his mother, brother and sisters were asking for him. He asked, “Who are my mother and brother and sisters? Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to me.” This demonstrates Jesus’ deep love for all those who love God.

† Don’t take a vacation from God. †

- Put prayer requests in your online calendar or cell phone calendar. Set the alarm to go off each day at different times for each request. Say a quick prayer for each alarm reminder.
- Read a Psalm each day. Highlight one verse in each Psalm that is especially meaningful to you.
- Put an empty jar on your dresser. At the end of each day, toss you change from your pocket into the jar. At the end of the summer write a check to a charity or mission of your choice.
