MEMORIALS – January 20TH to January 26TH

For those who have been called home to Christ, we pray especially for Louise Kelly, mother of Kevin Kelly, Francis "Frank" Reinhardt and Jonathan Farmer, nephew of John Farmer.

Dear Parishioners,

As you are aware, Bishop Serratelli has extended my pastorate almost three years since I turned 75 on July 28, 2015. He called me on December 6th and told me he was making some clerical changes while he was still Bishop, and that I would be retiring on March 1, 2019.

My plan is to retire to my condo in Keyport, NJ. As soon as I am settled, I will inquire to surrounding parishes to see if they need help with Masses. With the approval of the new Pastor, I will return to OLM for some weddings and other Sacraments I had planned to celebrate.

I will always be grateful to God and to you for making these past almost 28 years the best years of my life.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Carroll

Carroll's permission to play ball in the gym. The police will be contacted in the future if the break-ins continue!

“AND YOU SHALL BECOME ONE”

Is it any surprise that Our Lord uses the portrait of the Marriage Covenant as the image to imitate in your own God relationship? I could write about our first reading where the Prophet Isaiah declares, “As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you.” I could also bring your attention to our second reading in which St. Paul instructs you about God’s generosity, the different gifts of faith, healing, prophecy discernment, speaking and interpretation of tongues, wisdom and knowledge, when he says, “The Lord distributes His gifts individually to each person as He wishes; there are different kinds of Spiritual gifts, different forms of service, and different workings, but they are all from the ONE SPIRIT.” Like the Marriage Covenant, the bride and groom must become one, having the Spirit of the Lord as their center. Both of these readings give insight to what your own God relationship should look like. Today’s well known gospel of the “Wedding at Cana” reveals Jesus’s first miracle. Jesus gets involved at the very beginning of the couple’s life together, showing concern for their happiness and also fulfilling His Mother’s request for His intercession. He first reveals His power to the lowly servants, who witness the transformation of the water into wine. When you allow yourself to be transformed, you become God’s witness. United as a Bridegroom to a Bride, you become one union with our Lord, who should become your first and sweetest love. I could tell you about all of the above, but the most important lesson I want to tell you about today comes from Our Blessed Mother’s last words to you in Scripture, “DO WHATEVER HE TELLS YOU.” THE ONE WHO LOVED YOU FIRST AND THE ONE WHO WILL LOVE YOU LAST, CALLS YOU TO UNION WITH HIM, AND YOU SHALL BECOME ONE.

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Would you like to join the RCIA team? Please call Monsignor Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for more information.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5

Isaiah prophesizes that Jerusalem will again be held in high esteem by God. He states that all nations will witness its glory. He compares a groom’s joy toward his bride to the joy that God will feel toward Jerusalem.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Paul discusses the different gifts and talents bestowed upon different individuals. He explains that each individual receives various talents so that everyone can contribute something to society.

Gospel: John 2:1-11

Jesus and Mary attended a wedding where Mary informed Jesus that there was no more wine. At first he said it did not concern him, but then he turned several jugs of water into wine. His disciples were also present, and believed in him more strongly after they witnessed the first sign of glory he revealed to them.

With our heartfelt gratitude to the Knights of Columbus, OLM Priests, Parishioners and friends for their generous support of Mike’s benefit breakfast in November, which was a wonderful success! There are so many angels around. We appreciate and want to thank each of you for being our angels of kindness and generosity.
Fondly, the Dillon Family

IN & AROUND OUR PARISH

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Prayer to God the Father of all Life

Eternal God, You have revealed Yourself as the Father of all Life. We praise You for the Fatherly care You extend to all creation, and especially to us, made in Your image and likeness. Father, extend Your hand of protection to those threatened by abortion, and save them from its destructive power. Give Your strength to all fathers, that they may never give in to the fears that may tempt them to facilitate abortion. Bless our families and bless our land, that we may have the joy of welcoming and nurturing the life of which You are the source and the Eternal Father. Amen.
