PARISH SACRAMENTAL AND PRAYER

Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

(Matthew 28:19-20)

We welcome into the Roman Catholic Church those who were baptized:

Sara Virginia Gobes
who was baptized August 1, 2015

Georgia Mary Busanic,
Callen Millet Cook,
Maggie Catherine Howe,
Allison Nicole Ardon Mesa,
Sean Brian Slader
who were baptized August 2, 2015

"Is anyone among you suffering? They should pray . . . is anyone among you sick? They should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord."

(James 5:13,14)

MERCIFUL LIKE THE FATHER

WHAT IS THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE HOLY DOOR DURING A JUBILEE YEAR?

A Holy door symbolizes a passage or transition into a special year of evangelization and prayer. Pope Francis declared the Jubilee Year of Mercy at the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica and will be back at the door December 8 to formally open it and the Year of Mercy.

Popes typically announce a jubilee every 25 years, although extraordinary Holy Years have been proclaimed for special anniversaries — for example, a Holy Year was celebrated in 1983 to commemorate the 1,950th anniversary of Christ's death and resurrection. The Holy Door is opened to evoke the concept of forgiveness, which is the main focus of a Holy Year.

According to "Mondo Vaticano," a mini-encyclopedia published by the Vatican, the designation of a Holy Door may trace back to the ancient Christian practice of public penitence when sinners were given public penances to perform before receiving absolution. The penitents were not allowed to enter a church before completing the penance, but they were solemnly welcomed back in when their penance was fulfilled. Still today, Holy Year pilgrims enter the basilica through the Holy Door as a sign of their repentance and re-commitment to a life of faith. Both the opening and closing of the Holy Door take place with formal ceremonies to mark "the period of time set aside for men and women to sanctify their souls," the book says.

The ritual for opening the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica goes back to 1499 when Pope Alexander VI opened the door on Christmas Eve to inaugurate the Holy Year 1500. This was when the door was wooden. The bronze door panels that stand at St. Peter's today, made by Vico Consorti, were consecrated and first opened December 24, 1949, by Pius XII in proclamation of the 1950 Jubilee, a scene represented in the bottom right panel. For centuries, the doors were opened with a silver hammer, not a key, "because the doors of justice and mercy give way only to the force of prayer and penance," the encyclopedia says. Opening the Holy Year 2000, St. John Paul used neither a hammer, nor a key, but strongly pushed the door open.

The theme of human sin and God's mercy is illustrated in 15 of the 16 bronze panels that make up the current door, with episodes from both the Old and New Testament, including the Fall of Adam and Eve, the Annunciation, and the Merciful Father (and Prodigal Son).

Between the panels on the door at St. Peter's are little shields with the coats of arms of all the popes that opened it during the ordinary Holy Years, the last being St. John Paul. Pope Francis' coat of arms will be etched onto one of the empty shields that remain for future jubilee years after he opens and closes the door.

DAILY READINGS

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: I Kings 19:4-8

Queen Jezebel had vowed to kill Elijah, who went into the desert and prayed for death. Instead he went to sleep and was awakened by an angel, who told him to eat the food God had given him. He ate and went back to sleep, but God's angel again woke him and told him to eat. Strengthened by the food, he got up and walked forty days and nights to the mountain of God.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:30:2

Paul appeals to the Ephesians to get rid of bitterness, anger, and malice. Instead they must be kind, compassionate, and forgiving just as God has been. We must be imitators of Christ, and love one another as he has loved us.

Gospel: John 6:41-51

The Jews were not convinced that Jesus was the bread that came down from heaven. But he again explains that he is the bread of life. He tells them that anyone who believes and eats this bread shall live forever. He explains that the bread he will give is his flesh, for the life of the world.

MISSION SUNDAY

Next weekend, August 15/16, Rev. Noel Sixon of the Diocese of Romblon, Philippines will speak at all the Masses. Our Catholic Missionaries choose to follow Christ in His preference for the poor, not ideologically, but in the same way as Christ did: by living like them amid the uncertainties of everyday life and renouncing all claims to power, and in this way to become brothers and sisters of the poor, bringing them the witness of the joy of the Gospel and a sign of God's love.

A second collection will take place, please be as generous as your means permit.

EDUCATION

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Religious Education Registration (K - 8th) - 2015-2016

All enrolled this past academic year should have received a re-registration form so we ask that you kindly update it and return it the office promptly. Sixth graders all move into our Junior High Program. If you have a child going into high school you should be receiving information from Youth Ministry, the Confirmation Program, whose Director is Ms. Anne Marie Gisoldi. Their registration and payment is separate from ours. The information for registration should be addressed to Jody Costello, Secretary at j.costello@svmnj.org, 973-377-4000 ext. 301.

For new families interested in registering, please contact us for a program brochure with your education options. We ask that you carefully consider which option best suits the way your child learns and what is best for the family as a whole. Space can sometimes be limited in certain programs so we urge you to return your completed paperwork in a timely fashion.

For preschool children, please contact us to learn more about the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program. If your child has special needs, we also can share with you about our God's Rainbow program. One great way to evangelize and spread the word about the love of Jesus is to invite others to come to know Him.

Please contact Denise Stefanelli, Director of Christian Formation, 2nd floor, Ministry Center for further questions, additional information or concerns at 973-377-4000, Ext. 251 or denise.stefanelli@svmnj.org.

Seeking Interested Catechists -

(Traditional Monday Program- CCD):

If you think you may be interested in teaching in the fall on Monday afternoons from 3:30 - 5:00 pm, please contact the Christian Formation Office for further details. All training and instruction is provided. Catechists and aides needed for grades K-5.

YOUTH NEWS

Registrations for the 2015-2016 calendar year have been sent out. Please return at your earliest convenience to the Youth Ministry office completed. If you did not receive one, please contact Jody Costello at 973-377-4000, ext. 301 or email j.costello@svmnj.org.

SERVICE

HOPE HOUSE FOOD COLLECTION

Our monthly collection will take place next weekend, August 15/16. Items needed are cold cereal, coffee, tea, pasta, tomato products, personal care items, dry milk, peanut butter, soups and so much more.

The trustees of Hope House gratefully acknowledge our donation of 425 lbs. of assorted groceries.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

For many years now, our parish has helped students get back to school with all the materials and supplies they need. This year our school supply drive will be held the weekends of August 22/23 and August 29/30. Your contributions of supplies such as, backpacks, lunch bags, crayons, pencils, red pens, erasable pens and markers etc. help to make the start of school a little easier and more affordable for many families. Your donations can be placed in the vestibule of the church. If you know of a family that could benefit from this outreach, please call Maureen Dorney at 973-765-9662. We are anxious to help all those in need. Thank you, again for your generous support.

A Family Perspective

"Stop murmuring" Jesus told the disciples in today's Gospel. Complaining is a dead-end and constant complaining is nagging. We might feel better, but others feel bitter. Silence or grumbling will not resolve the problem. Address differences honestly and respectfully. Don't make them personal attacks.

DÉCIMONOVENO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

LA PARROQUIA DE ST. VINCENT MARTYR
ES UNA COMUNIDAD CATÓLICA DIVERSA EN MADISON NJ QUE DA LA BIENVENIDA A TODOS Y COMPARTE EL AMOR DE JESUCRISTO A TRAVÉS DE LA ORACIÓN, LOS MINISTERIOS, LA EDUCACIÓN Y LA CARIDAD

DÉCIMONOVENO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera Lectura: 1 Reyes 19:4-8

La reina Jezabel había jurado matar a Elías, quien fué al desierto y pidió morir. En vez, se durmió. Un ángel lo despertó y le dijo que comiera la comida que Dios le había dado. Comió y se volvió a dormir, pero el ángel de Dios lo volvió a despertar y le dijo que comiera. Fortalecido por la comida, se levantó y caminó cuarenta días y noches a las montañas de Dios.

Segunda Lectura: Efesios 4:30—5:2

Pablo pide a los efesios deshacerse de la amargura, enojo y malicia. En vez deben ser amables, compasivos, y perdonar como Dios lo ha hecho. Debemos imitar a Cristo y amarnos los unos a los otros como El nos ha amado.

Evangelio: San Juan 6:41-51

Los judíos no estaban convencidos de que Jesús era el pan que bajó del cielo. Pero El explica de nuevo que El es el pan de vida. Les dice que aquel que cree y come de su pan vivirá para siempre. Explica que el pan que dará es su cuerpo, para la vida del mundo.

UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES SU PALABRA HOY

Décimo Noveno Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario de agosto de 2015

“No entristezcan al Espíritu Santo de Dios, que los ha marcado con un sello para el día de la redención. Eviten la amargura, los arrebatos, la ira, los gritos, los insultos y toda clase de maldad. Por el contrario, sean mutuamente buenos y compasivos, perdonándose los unos a los otros como Dios los ha perdonado en Cristo.”

Cuando San Pablo les escribió a los efesios, incluyó una lista de lo que necesitamos y de lo que debemos eliminar de nuestras vidas. Es fácil recordarla. Estas son virtudes que buscamos y seguramente manifestamos en muchas formas. Pasamos por alto los defectos, y quizá no los vemos como barreras u obstáculos cuando consideramos recibir la Eucaristía.

San Pablo no se refiere a simples molestias, como el calor o una tormenta, sino los serios vicios dirigidos a otras personas. Ofrezcamos un remedio: Primero oremos por la persona o personas contra las que sentimos rabia, furia o enojo. Segundo, cuando se nos dificulta ‘perdonar y olvidar’, recuerde, pero sin amargura. Los vicios nos hacen menos humanos, menos amoros, egoistas, menos dignos de ser amados.

El Señor nos habla así como habló a Elías: ‘¡Levántate, come, porque todavía te queda mucho por caminar!’
