

THE GOOD NEWS FROM OUR KINGDOM

The 1st ever 'Catholic Schools Got Talent' show was held on February 2nd at St. Pius X High School. The show featured the best Catholic school talent from among 4th-8th graders, in the areas of music and art. Congratulations to our finalists!
M. Broussard—Finalist, Trumpet, song "When You Wish Upon a Star"
S. Roehl—Finalist, Singing, "Once Upon a December"

Catholic Schools Art Gallery Exhibit & Competition - The inaugural 'Art Walk' competition took place prior to the Talent Show and exhibited the best K-8th grade artwork in the areas of originality, creativity, skill and drawing ability. Three of our students were showcased: E. Lavire, N. Prado, and S. Minch! A special congratulations to S. Minch who won 2nd place in her division. Her work will be published in the Texas Catholic Herald.
