

CATHOLIC EDUCATION

The Good News from our Kingdom

"Am I not here, I who am your mother?" - Our Lady of Guadalupe is a celebrated tradition at our school. On Friday, December 14th, 2018, in honor of Our Lady, students performed a short re-enactment of the story of Saint Juan Diego before Mass. Flowers were collected and placed in vases to venerate our Blessed Mother.

The Texas "Do The Write Thing" Challenge - Each year, middle school students in Ms. Williams' English classes participate in a state-wide writing challenge aimed at bringing awareness to youth violence. Student writers are given a voice and asked for their solutions to the challenges they face today. Through this writing platform, students are empowered to address the causes of and solutions to bullying, violence and juvenile delinquency. All essays are collected and submitted to the DTWT-TX organization in Houston, where they are reviewed against other school entries and considered for special recognition and publication. We are grateful to Ms. Williams for nurturing a healthy learning environment and to our students for rising to this writing challenge!
