ST HILDEGARD LECTURE FEBRUARY 11

The University of Mary Catholic Studies presents the annual St. Hildegard lecture on Monday February 11, at 10 AM, at the Founders Hall. Msgr. Tom Richter will present "Evangelization Without Complication". The lecture is named for St. Hildegard, an 11th century Benedictine Abbess, and Doctor of the Church, who was a mystic, an expert on medicine, a poet and musician. The themes of this Catholic studies program will focus on the relationship of faith and reason, the role of beauty and art in culture, and our mission to transform the world. If you wish to view the lecture online, it will be streamed live at: <https://www.youtube.com/universityofmary/live>

GIVING HEARTS DAY -

FEB 14 Giving Hearts Day is a 24-hour giving event for charities across North Dakota and will be held this year on Thursday, Feb. 14. 2019 is the 12th year for the Giving Hearts event. Last year, more than 28,000 people donated $13.1 million. More than 450 nonprofits and charitable funds are part of Giving Hearts Day this year—making this the largest group ever! 100% of the donations made on Giving Hearts Day go directly to the charities. The event runs for 24 hours and you can give by going online to www.givingheartsday.org. The minimum contribution is $10 and you can donate to as many charities as you wish.
