Our common call to uncommon greatness.

May 12, 2016 at the Milwaukee Theater, Milwaukee, WI

"More than anything else our country needs strong families led by fathers who are faithful, courageous and holy. But no man can live a life of sacrifice and courage as an island—he needs support from other faithful men who share his same ideals. This is what Men of Christ is all about, men helping men toward an encounter with Christ so they can be the fathers that God created us men to be." —Father Eric Nielsen

NARAL Livid Over Super Bowl Doritos Ad

NEW YORK—Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League, on February 8 commented on the way the pro-abortion group, NARAL, responded to the Doritos ad that aired during the Super Bowl:

“The Doritos ad that showed an ultrasound picture of the baby carried by the baby’s mother was condemned BY NARAL for ‘humanizing the fetus.’ It did just that. What else could it have done?”

“In 2013, Scottish professor Malcolm Nicolson coauthored a book, Imaging and Imagining the Fetus: The Development of Obstetric Ultrasound, published by Johns Hopkins University Press. He noted the ‘humanizing effect’ of ultrasound and the enthusiastic reception it is receiving from pregnant women. In fact, he said, some women report not feeling pregnant until they’ve seen the pictures.

“Anti-women feminists such as Allison Benedikt also acknowledge the effects of this technology. In a Salon article in 2012, she lashed out at pregnant women who were sharing pictures of their unborn babies on Facebook. She exclaimed that the more women share these pictures, ‘the harder it will be to deny that they are people.’ She is exactly right. When photos of humans are shared, their humanity is confirmed.

“Similarly, in 2007, author Melody Rose published a pro-abortion book wherein she decried the way ‘recent developments in imaging technique certainly have facilitated a reliance on powerful pictures that humanize the fetus in a way not possible two decades ago.’ Imagine how human these humans will look two decades from now!

“In 1994, the great English historian Paul Johnson, author of Modern Times, compared abortion to slavery. He noted that advances in medical technology have had a dramatic effect. “The fetus is being humanized,’ he said, ‘just as the slave was humanized.’ That’s what worries NARAL.”

St. Joseph Catholic Academy

Middle School is one of the most important educational junctures in a child’s academic career. The skills and habits developed in middle school are not only indicators of high school achievement, but also directly influence college success.

SJCA Middle School focuses not just on the academic skills necessary for future success, but also on the specific habits that lead to independent, purposeful learning. With its departmentalized subjects, specialized theology curriculum, college and career counseling, one to one laptop program, individualized academic support, and much, much more, SJCA Middle School fully prepares students for high school and beyond.

Come and see the difference SJCA Middle School can make for your child. Call Wanda Jaraczewski at 262-654-8651 (ext. 104) to schedule a visit today or email her at wjaraczewski@sjcawi.org. For more information, visit www.sjcawi.org.
