Obama admin & corporations threaten to withhold money and business from North Carolina over bathroom privacy law

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 6, 2016 (LifeSiteNews) – The Obama Administration officials announced Friday they were reviewing whether the Public Facilities Privacy and Security Act overturning a Charlotte city ordinance allowing men to use women's restrooms and showers should result in the federal government withholding funding for schools, highways and housing, to the tune of billions of dollars. After a statewide outcry against the Charlotte ordinance, the state's General Assembly passed HB2 in a special session March 23, with Governor Pat McCrory signing it into law that same day. In addition to repealing the Charlotte ordinance, the new law limits municipalities' ability to enact laws with special protection based upon "gender identity," and mandates that all public educational and government organizations have restrooms and locker rooms designated by biological sex.

The Obama Administration joins the list of corporations and agencies teaming with the homosexual lobby to punish North Carolina for acting to preserve safety and privacy of its citizens. Businesses critical of the law include, among many others, Google, Microsoft, Barnes & Noble, Levi & Strauss, Twitter, Starbucks, Wells Fargo, Facebook, and Apple. The NCAA and NBA have opposed the North Carolina law as well.

North Carolina Lt. Governor Dan Forest issued a statement: "If our action in keeping men out of women's bathrooms and showers protected the life of just one child or one woman from being molested or assaulted, then it was worth it," Forest said. "North Carolina will never put a price tag on the value of our children. They are precious and priceless. If a corporation wanting to do business in North Carolina does not see the worth of our children in the same light, then I wish them well as they do business somewhere else."

Guide to the Catechism of the Catholic Church The Glory of Easter

Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

"Christ has risen from the dead By his death he has conquered death. To the dead he has given life," Troparion of Easter of the Byzantine liturgy; Catechism, 638.

Most people like a happy ending to a story. Sometimes, they even rewrite a work to achieve one. During the eighteenth century, Shakespeare's tragedy of King Lear was changed so that Lear was restored to the throne. But Easter is more than a contrived ending. The risen Jesus wears the marks of the passion. The death and resurrection of Jesus was more than the result of random historical forces—it was part of the eternal plan of salvation. Christians view the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus as the world's greatest drama. The Gospel is not a tragedy, but a narrative with a true happy ending, consistent with the life and death of Jesus. Easter illumines the suffering that went before it.

Both Historical and Transcendent Event

John's Gospel is so full of Easter joy that it contains two chapters about the event. Christ's resurrection is a true historical happening, a transcendent event, and a mystery. St. Paul speaks of the living tradition of the resurrection that he discovered after his conversion on the Damascus road (1 Cor 15:3-4). Paul insists that the Twelve Apostles and more than five hundred others witnessed the reality of the risen Jesus. Christ's risen body is filled with the power of the Spirit. It shares the divine life in its state of glory. The resurrection is historical, but it is also a transcendent intervention of God in history. It is both a challenge to and a confirmation of our faith. "If Christ has not been raised, then empty is our preaching, empty, too, your faith" (1 Cor 15:14).

Revealing the Glory of Christ's Divinity

The resurrection makes credible everything Jesus did and taught. Easter opens up the glory of Christ's divinity. Christmas and Easter form one bond, revealing to us the accomplishment of the eternal plan of God for our salvation. By His death, Jesus freed us from sin. By His resurrection, He opens for us the path to new life. Finally, the risen Jesus is the principle and source of our own future resurrection. "As in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life" (1 Cor 15:22). Easter helps us "taste the heavenly gift and the powers of the age to come" (Heb 6:4-5). Every year, Easter faith takes on the bright sound of a trumpet blast. "Everything belongs to you, whether it be the world, or life or death, or the present or the future. All belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God" (1 Cor 3:23-24).

Fr. Campbell's Wed. 6am Men's Bible Study

Next session on Wed. April 27, Mount Carmel School. Enter through door facing west/Columbus Park. Bring a Bible—we read/discuss the upcoming Sunday readings. Strong coffee is served!

Festival Corner

FESTIVAL 2016:

This year Mt. Carmel will be celebrating our 69th Annual Festival, something our parish family is very proud of. The dates this year are July 8-9-10. Along with our traditional religious procession on Sunday we will have our great Homemade Pasta Dinner on Friday and Saturday evening. Great thanks goes to the Ladies Society for an amazing amount of hard work they put into that. We have this year some outstanding entertainment lined up. That is now posted on Mt. Carmel's Facebook Page. It will be advertised all over soon. Please pass and share that info on your personal FB pages.

We are now ready to start collecting items for the White Elephant Booth for our Festival. Any household items except clothing will be accepted. Please contact the Parish Office only during regular business hours at 652-7660 or Anna Darbutus at 657-5848 or Tom Rizzo at 595-0525 anytime.

On another very important point is it also never too early in helping to solicit sponsors for the Festival. As in the past $100.00 for any food/game booth or $200.00 or more for the entertainment. NO amount is too small. Also it is very important to keep in mind how you yourself can think of ways you want to help out at the Festival this year, whether it's setting up the grounds, working at a booth or taking the Festival down. Main Raffle tickets will be available at the end of April beginning of May.

As always you can contact me at anytime with any questions by calling me at 595-0525 or email me at: tar1603@hotmail.com.

Thank You. Tom Rizzo Festival Chairman

Operation: Support our Deployed Troops Donation Drive

The Ladies Society is sponsoring a donation drive for deployed troops overseas. Our goal is to send each soldier 'a little bit of home' to let them know we are praying for their health and safety. Suggested donation items include travel size toiletries, batteries, non-perishable snacks, candy and cookies. Please see the donation box in the church vestibule for a complete list of suggested donation items.

You can place donated items in the donation box marked 'Operation Support our Deployed Troops' in the church vestibule until Sunday, May 15.

If you would like to make a monetary donation to cover the cost of postage, or would like us to send a personal care package to a specific soldier, please contact Ladies Society member, Carol Szulczewski, at 262.496.8086. Thank you in advance for your generosity and support.
