Religious Education

Religious Education Teacher needed for grades 3 and 4.

Are you interesting in sharing your faith with children. We are in need of a teacher for next fall on Sunday mornings to work with our children.

Please see Father Campbell or Delia Chiappetta to learn more about how you are able to help.

Our Sanctuary Redecoration Project: Don't forget to donate!

Just a reminder that we have many opportunities to donate toward our sanctuary redecoration. We already have received donations for the tabernacle, the Last Supper scene and the adoring angels for the new high altar, as well as a number of general donations for the overall project. If you have not yet made a donation, please consider doing so, in order that we can plan to go forward with phase 2 of our renovation, the painting of the sanctuary, after the altar is finished. You may donate by check or online at a link on our website, www.OlmcKenosha.org.

Any questions, call the rectory at 652-7660.

All donations are tax deductible.

Welcome her into eternal life...

Father Campbell, Father McDermott, and the Parish community of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Mary Muto.

O, Lord, comfort them in their time of sorrow and grief.

Eternal rest grant unto her, and let perpetual light shine upon her.

May she rest in the peace of Christ.

Robert Cardinal Sarah on “Gender Ideology” (from his book God or Nothing):

- Today [the Church] must address gender ideology, which John Paul II did not hesitate to describe as a "new ideology of evil". Moreover gender, the product of reflection by American structuralists, is a deformed child of Marxist thinking. In his last book, Memory and Identity, John Paul II had already written: “I am thinking... of the strong pressure from the European Parliament to recognize homosexual unions as an alternative type of family, the right to adopt children. It is legitimate, even necessary to ask whether this is not the work of another ideology of evil, more subtle and hidden, perhaps, intent upon exploiting human rights themselves against man and against the family.”

- Gender ideology conveys a crude lie, since the reality of the human being as man and woman is denied. The lobbies and the feminist movement promote it with violence. It has rapidly been transformed into a battle against the social order and its values. Its objective does not just stop at the deconstruction of the [human] subject; It is interested above all in the deconstruction of the social order. It is about sowing discord over the legitimacy of social norms and introducing a suspicion over the model of heterosexuality; for [proponents of] gender [theory], it is necessary to abolish Christian civilization and construct a new world.

Supreme Court overturns landmark Texas pro-life law

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 27, 2016 (LifeSiteNews) – The Supreme Court has reversed a landmark Texas pro-life law requiring abortionists to have admitting privileges and abortion facilities to meet more stringent health standards. An eight-justice Supreme Court has reversed the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals by a vote of 5-3.

The case involves Texas' H.B. 2, a pro-life law that, aside from restricting abortion to the first 20 weeks of pregnancy, required abortionists to have admitting privileges at a hospital within 30 miles of their offices and abortion facilities to meet the same health standards as other ambulatory surgical centers (ASCs). Those regulations caused the number of abortion facilities to drop from 41 to eight according to Planned Parenthood, closing 13 abortion clinics in one day.

The decision, written by Justice Stephen Breyer, says that both requirements place a substantial burden on women's right to exercise their "reproductive rights," including the right to obtain an abortion. Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg wrote her own concurring opinion, writing that "complications from an abortion are both rare and rarely dangerous."

In a scathing, 17-page dissent, Justice Clarence Thomas excoriated "the court's habit of applying different rules to different constitutional rights – especially the putative right to abortion."

“As the court applies whatever standard it likes to any given case, nothing but empty words separates our constitutional decisions from judicial fiat," he wrote. He said that the "decision exemplifies the Court's troubling tendency 'to bend the rules when any effort to limit abortion, or even to speak in opposition to abortion, is at issue.'”

“Amazing Grace” vs. “Hail Satan!” The law generated white-hot controversy before it ever passed, as hundreds of activists on both sides of the issue flooded the state Capitol in Austin during the sweltering summer of 2013. At one point, pro-life advocates sang "Amazing Grace" while pro-abortion activists drowned them out by chanting "Hail Satan!"

500 Texas women a year rushed to hospital from botched abortions: At issue is whether the state's pro-life regulations are intended to preserve women's health and safety, or if they impose obligations that make it impossible for women to have an abortion. An average of 10 Texas women are taken to the emergency room due to a botched abortion every week, or 500 a year, according to the Texas-based Justice Foundation. More than 200 are hospitalized annually.

In 2004, the American College of Surgeons and the American Medical Association issued a document that said a “core principle” of public safety is that “physicians performing office-based surgery must have admitting privileges at a nearby hospital, a transfer agreement with another physician who has admitting privileges at a nearby hospital, or maintain an emergency transfer agreement with a nearby hospital.” In all, 32 respected medical societies endorsed the admitting privileges statement. Supporters say the move is a commonsense measure designed to protect women from being abandoned after botched abortions.
