Scripture Readings
 May 20, 2018
 Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

During the Feast of Pentecost, tongues of fire came to rest on the heads of the disciples and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. Each disciple began speaking in a different language, and were understood by people from many different regions who were amazed at what they had witnessed.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul explains that we are all members of one body. We have all been baptized in one Spirit and although numerous, we are one through Christ.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

John describes Jesus' first visit to the disciples after his resurrection. He gave them the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive other people or hold them responsible for their actions.

PARISH ENGLISH CHURCH MUSIC CONCERT

The music ministry of St. Catherine of Siena Church and many special guest singers and instrumentalists will be presenting a concert of English church music on Sunday, May 20th at 3pm in the sanctuary of the church. The concert will include such great composers as Purcell, Stanford, and Vaughan Williams. The concert will conclude with the lively and festive Gloria (complete with brass ensemble) from modern English composer John Rutter. Save the date on the calendar—it will be quite the treat. All are welcome to this free event.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers. May God bless you for the many sacrifices and offerings you make for your children and your family. We should be grateful to you not just on one day, but all year long, for the important role you play. We should also keep in our prayers today those who perhaps find Mother's Day to be a difficult time — mothers who have lost children; children who have lost their mothers; women who are having difficulty becoming mothers; those who struggled and even failed to be the best possible mothers; and mothers and children who are estranged.

Top Ten Reasons Moms are Important (Goldsmith)

1. If it weren't for your mom, you wouldn't be breathing right now. If nothing else, you should thank her for that.
2. Mothers are the emotional backbones of the family. They provide the holding place for everyone's feelings and do their best to keep us from being hurt.
3. Who would kiss your boo-boos to make it all better if she weren't around? Mothers help us heal our wounds, physical and emotional.
4. Truly, our mothers worked hard and made sacrifices so our lives would be better. So let her know you appreciate it.
5. Mothers are forgiving—so forgive her in return.
6. When you want to climb the tallest mountain, your mother will make your lunch for you. She is the one who will support your dreams when no one else will. She will also remind you to wear clean underwear.
7. Her boundaries made you a better person. You may not have liked some of her decisions but look at some of your friends without a mom who has cared that much.
8. A mother's ears and eyes hear and see everything. They also have a computer-like memory for all the good (and some of the bad) that came your way.
9. Mom taught you to be a functioning adult. That was her job. Your mom may have forced you to do your homework, but now you see how important it was.
10. A mother's smile makes your day a whole lot better. All she needs is to know that she has helped you to be and feel your best. Say thank you.

Peace,
Fr. Jared

FLOCKNOTE: An Efficient Way To Communicate

As part of opening up the lines of communication in the parish, you are invited to subscribe to a service called FLOCKNOTE...like sending "notes" to the "flock." FLOCKNOTE is very simple. Text the letters SienaML to the 5-digit phone number 84576. Make sure your autocorrect on your phone does not mistakenly change the text. Once you send that in, FLOCKNOTE will send you back a confirmation message and a verification code with a link to enter the code. That's it! You can also subscribe online by visiting flocknote.com/SienaML. Follow the instructions to register.
