Scripture Readings
 October 21, 2018
 Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Isaiah speaks of how the Servant of God will have to give his life up for the sins of other people. Because of this suffering, the Servant will receive eternal life for himself and all the people whose sins are forgiven because of him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is considered to be the new high priest and mediator between God and his people. Fortunately, Jesus has experienced the same temptations as other people, and so he has more tolerance of our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

During the conclave that elected him Pope, Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio wrote that the Church is called to “come out of itself and to go to the peripheries.” He warned that if the Church does not “go out”, it becomes sick.

The Church does not seek to glorify Christ, but rather itself. Therefore, it becomes “sick.” The Church forgets its mission to be a missionary Church. The Church is wounded in different ways. The Church needs healing. The first step is to acknowledge this woundedness and the need for healing. The pain in the Church is the result of abuse scandals, closing of parishes, schools, and clustering of other parishes. Denial of our pain and sorrow is not an option.

Fr. Mallon, in Divine Renovation, distinguishes between pain and suffering. Pain, in and of itself, does not lead to life. Pain grappled with is suffering. Suffering is redemptive. What is redemptive suffering? You are invited to learn more at our fall Adult Faith Enrichment Series where we will discuss this mission. We continue this week on Tuesday evening at 7pm or Thursday morning at 10:30am. All are welcome!

Peace,
Fr. Jared

ADULT FAITH ENRICHMENT

LITURGICAL Q & A

Each week we will post a question and answer about the liturgy. If you would like to submit a question, please do so to lisahward@aol.com

Why does the priest break a piece of the Host into his chalice before communion?

Centuries ago, the Bishop of a diocese would celebrate daily Mass with his priests. After that liturgy, each priest would take a piece of the consecrated host to his parish. Later that day, when he celebrated Mass with his parishioners, he would drop that host into the chalice to symbolize unity with the Bishop. Today, that act reminds us of our unity with our Bishop as well as reminding us that Christ’s Body and Blood are united in the Eucharist.

Building Our Vision

We had a wonderful first Vision Session on October 7th. Many thanks to everyone who attended and shared their ideas on how to bring our parish survey learnings to life and help St. Catherine more fully serve the needs of our parish family.

Insights into Action: Music Ministry

One big area of interest in the parish survey was enhancing our music. This reflected your acknowledgement of the importance of music in our liturgies. We are happy to welcome to our community Mr. David de la Mora, our new Music Ministry Coordinator. He embodies the varied musical tradition and styles of the Church. David will be focusing on the selection of our music, our cantors, instrumentalists, working with our children in Religious Education, forming a youth choir, and attracting parishioners to participate in our music ministry. David is present every weekend on Saturday evening and Sunday mornings. Please say hello to him and share with him if you have a musical talent that you would like to share.

Next Steps? Two Remaining Vision Sessions

If you were not able to attend the first vision session, please join one of these: Wednesday, October 17 at 4:00pm in the parish center or Sunday, October 21 at 10:30am in the gym.

ALL SAINTS WEEKEND CELEBRATION

On Thursday, November 1st we will celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. This is the day when we celebrate our belief in the Communion of the Saints. All of the baptized are part of this beautiful communion; those of us here on earth, the souls in purgatory, and all the souls in heaven. We are all on a journey to reach our ultimate destiny of heaven. We call upon the intercession of all the saints who are with God in heaven already to assist us on our journey. The 1st grade Family Faith session # 1 will be Sunday, October 28 following the 11:30 Mass. All are invited to dress up as saints and join us for the Family Faith session to learn about this rich tradition of the Church.

Religious Ed needs teachers for the following classes:

SILVER & GOLD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MASS

* Last Call to Register ****

Couples, were you married in 1968 or 1993? The Diocese of Paterson invites you to celebrate your 25th or 50th wedding anniversary with Bishop Serratelli during a special Mass at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Paterson Sunday, November 4 at 3:30 pm. Please submit the registration form found in the vestibule to the parish office no later than October 15. Couples married 60 or more years are also invited. You will receive additional information from the Office of Family Life once your registration has been processed.

FLOCKNOTE: An Efficient Way To Communicate

As part of opening up the lines of communication in the parish, you are invited to subscribe to a service called FLOCKNOTE...like sending "notes" to the "flock." It is free to use and makes it easy to stay plugged in to the activities of the parish via text message. FLOCKNOTE is very simple. Text the letters SienaML to the 5-digit phone number 84576. Once you send that, FLOCKNOTE will send you back a confirmation message and a verification code with a link to enter the code. That's it! You can also subscribe online by visiting flocknote.com/SienaML.
