Scripture Readings
February 24, 2019
Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23
Saul wanted to harm David and went into the desert to locate him. David and his companion Abishai visited Saul and his troops while they slept. Abishai wanted to kill Saul, but David would not allow it, as he refused to kill the Lord's anointed.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:45-49
Paul portrays Adam as the first physical man and Jesus as the first man to give us our spirituality. One man was formed from dust, the other sent down from heaven. Just as we resemble the first being physically, we should model ourselves after Jesus spiritually.

Gospel: Luke 6:27-38
Jesus explains that loving only people who love us is no great achievement. He also reminds us that doing a favor for someone while expecting something in return is not what he asks of us. Instead, we should emulate God by being compassionate and non-judgmental, even towards individuals who hate and mistreat us.

ALTAR SERVERS: There will be an altar server meeting held Tuesday, February 26 and Thursday, February 28 at 6:00 pm in the church. Please attend one of these meetings according to your schedule.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

"You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain" (Ex 20:7).

In the Bible a name is the intimate truth of things and, above all, of individuals. A name often represents a mission. For example, Abraham in Genesis (cf. 17:5) and Simon Peter in the Gospels (cf. Jn 1:42) received a new name to indicate the change in the direction of their lives. And truly knowing the name of God leads to the transformation of one's life: from the moment Moses learned God's name, his story changed (cf. Ex 3:13-15).

For us Christians, this Commandment is the call to remind ourselves that we were baptized "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", as we affirm each time we make the sign of the Cross, in order to carry out our daily actions in heartfelt and true communion with God, that is, in his love. And on this topic, making the sign of the Cross, I would like to repeat once again: teach your children to make the sign of the Cross. Teach them how to do it: in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. A child's first act of faith. This is your homework, homework to do: teach children to make the sign of the Cross.

If more Christians were to take God's name upon themselves without falsehood — by honoring the first request of the Our Father: "hallowed be thy name" — the Church's message would receive more attention and would be more credible. If our daily life were to manifest God's name, we would see how beautiful Baptism is and what a great gift the Eucharist is; what sublime union there is between our body and the Body of Christ; Christ in us and we in him! United! This is not hypocrisy, this is truth. This is not speaking or praying like a parrot. This is praying from the heart, loving the Lord.

From the Cross of Christ onwards, no one can despise themselves and think badly of their life. No one and never! No matter what they may have done. Because the name of each of us is on Christ's shoulders. He carries us! It is worthwhile to take God's name upon ourselves because he took our names upon himself, to the very end, including the evil that is within us. He burdened himself, in order to forgive us, to place his love in our hearts. This is why in this Commandment, God proclaimed: "Take me upon yourself as I have taken you upon me".

Anyone, in whatever situation they may be, can invoke the Holy name of the Lord, who is faithful and merciful Love. God will never say 'no' to a heart that invokes him sincerely. And let us return to the assignment to be done at home: teach children to make the sign of the Cross properly.

Annual Women's Retreat

Each year the women of the parish gather for a Retreat, traditionally in Lent. This year, they will go on retreat the weekend of March 8-10 at Villa Pauline in Mendham. This is open to all women of the parish and friends and relatives from outside. From my experience, we never know how much we need a retreat until we actually make one. We get so caught up in the routine and activity of daily life that we see that as the norm. We lose sight of the need to stop, breathe, and take retreat from our routines. This Women's Retreat is the perfect opportunity for you. This year's retreat leader will be Dr. Julie V. Burkey, D.Min., Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall University. Dr. Burkey teaches the courses she created, Theology of Work, Catholic Evangelization and New Evangelization and Catechesis. From 2008 to 2015, she served the Seminary as Coordinator, Workplace Spirituality and Evangelization Initiatives, creating programs focusing on a spirituality of work for parishes, academia and the secular workplace. Dr. Burkey also created and facilitated the lay student leadership retreat series, Making our Work God's Work: Spiritual Formation for Lay Leadership in Pastoral Ministry, and she served as advisor to the lay student prayer and reflection group, Clay Lamps of Emmaus. She holds a master's degree from Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology, having earned the prestigious Pope John Paul II Medal of Academic Excellence upon graduation, and a Doctor of Ministry from The Catholic University of America. She has worked with the Institute for Christian Spirituality since its inception, initially creating the core program, Finding the Work You Love, followed by several other programs on a variety of topics, including careers in Church ministry. Dr. Burkey currently serves on the Board of the American Academy of Management's Management, Spirituality, and Religion Division. She will be a wonderful leader facilitating you to retreat into the mystery of God's love and mercy for the weekend.

Feast of the Chair of St. Peter the Apostle

This Friday, February 22 is the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. This feast commemorates Christ's choosing Peter to sit in his place as the servant-authority of the whole Church. Peter is known as the first Pope and every Pope since is known as Successor of Peter. This feast highlights the significance of the office of the Papacy, not an individual. In St. Peter's Basilica there is the Altar of the Chair of Peter. Pope Benedict XVI said in 2012, the Chair is "a symbol of the special mission of Peter and his Successors to tend Christ's flock, keeping it united in faith and in charity." I encourage you to pray always for our Pope who is the Vicar of Christ and Successor of Peter.

Peace,
Fr. Jared
