Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." Mk. 12:41-44

PASTORS COLUMN

THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

We begin the month of November with the Solemnity of All Saints followed by the Feast of All Souls on the following day. The celebration of Mass has ever been for the Church the principal means of fulfilling towards the dead the great commandment of charity. Masses specifically for the dead are found in the tradition of the church from the fifth century. It was St. Odilo, fourth abbot of Cluny, who around the year 1040, was responsible for the institution of the general commemoration of all the faithful departed; he started it and fixed its celebration on November 2, the day after All Saints. The practice spread to the rest of the Church.

Daily in the prayers of the Holy Mass, at which the priest remembers all those who have fallen asleep in the Lord, the priest implores God to grant them a place of happiness, light and peace. Thus there is no Mass in which the Church does not pray for the faithful departed. During the month of November our thoughts are directed towards the Holy Souls in Purgatory in a particular fashion, with the desire of leaving no soul in purgatory without spiritual aid and of grouping them all together in her intercession.

Who are these souls that we pray for and why do we need to pray for them? The Holy Souls are those who have gone through death before us marked with the sign of faith. These beautiful souls lived in response to Jesus' invitation to be His disciples and witnesses in this world. While reborn in the waters of baptism, and claimed by Christ, they spend their lives seeking to love and serve Jesus. In human frailty our love for God is not perfect and so after death our souls who have served Christ and sought union with Him are purified for the awesome life of Heaven. The Catechism of the Catholic Church offers the following insight and teaching on Purgatory:

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire:

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.

Pope St. Gregory the Great.

1032 This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead that they might be delivered from their sin." (2 Maccabees 12:46) From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God.

During this month of November, and indeed everyday, may we offer prayers in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the Holy Souls in Purgatory so that they may come to the fullness of Eternal Life. Let us also teach others to do so, especially those who may be the ones we will depend upon for prayers when we are among the Holy Souls preparing for that ultimate fulfilment of Eternal Life in God's presence. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. May they rest in your peace.

Peace,
Fr. Richard

NEXT SUNDAY MASS READINGS

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

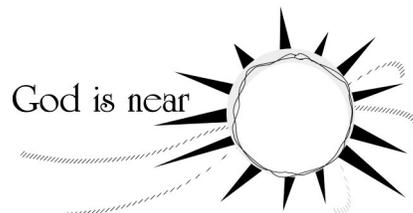

Daniel discusses the end of the world, a time when the dead shall rise and everyone will be judged. He warns that some shall "be an everlasting horror and disgrace." But he promises that some will live forever, and the wise will shine brightly to lead others to justice.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Priests repeatedly offered sacrifices that were unable to take away sin. But through Jesus' one sacrifice, our sins were forgiven, leaving no need for other offerings.

Gospel: Mark
13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

RIGHT TO LIFE FIRST PLACE WINNING ESSAY

The Gift of Life

Pope Francis told us every life is a gift from God. We should recognize every life as such because God forms us in the palms of His hands in Heaven and places us in our mother’s womb. The hands of God preordained our future when we entered the womb and blessed our mothers with a gift of God’s image and love for the world. God expects us to see this as a blessing and not a mistake. Therefore, life is a supernatural gift that brings us closer to God and to His love.

Life begins for us in the womb. We are fully alive and this is proven by the first heartbeat of the unborn child. In the womb, we are vulnerable to abortion, which kills the unborn child of God and breaks our relationship with Him. Abortion is an act of complete defiance to God. Life must be defended. Just as people see murder as a terrible crime, so must they see abortion, because it murders the child who was created out of God’s love.

Life is important, not only because it is a gift from God to the world, but also because it continues the line of humanity. The children who are born continue traditions that will be passed on for the rest world. Our offspring will change the world and begin new traditions of humanity. This is not to be taken lightly. In the past year, 40 million children have been aborted. We are killing the generation that will cure diseases and make new discoveries. If abortion stays legal, not only will it devastate our God who created these children, but it could end our line of humanity. The future of humanity depends on every unborn child, and every life that must be protected.
