

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." John Archdiocesan Lay Ministry Formation: Grow in faith, knowledge and skills through the Athenaeum of Ohio Lay Pastoral Ministry Program. We prepare ordinary Catholics for extraordinary service to families, parishes and the larger community. Graduates serve as catechists, chaplains, advocates for life, permanent deacons, staff members in parishes and non-profit agencies and volunteers in a wide variety of settings. We offer graduate and non-degreed options at the main campus in Mt. Washington and at St. Ignatius in Montfort Heights. Weeknight and Saturday classes and flexible formation components allow you to fit the program into a busy adult schedule. Isn't it time you answer the call to deeper discipleship? Classes forming now for Fall Semester beginning August, 2019. Call 513-231-1200 for information or to set up an interview.

**Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Raise them with the teaching and instruction of the Lord. Eph 6:4*

REFLECTION. The family is the domestic Church. Parents should by word and example be the first preachers of the Faith to their children.

They should encourage their children in the vocation proper to each, carefully fostering vocations to the religious state. Vatican II: The Church, no. 11

PRAYER. Heavenly Father, help me to take seriously my role in the domestic Church. Let me work to ensure that Christian love and harmony will always reign in my family.
