HAPPY EASTER from Brother Jason Muhlekkamp, Brother Levis Kuwa, Charles Osewe Aketch, and Fr. Mike. It is a privilege serving the mission of Jesus in this part of SOWEGA.

Welcome to two Glenmary Students: we are happy to have Antonio Marchi and Richard Toboso with us for the Triduum. Antonio is a brother-candidate. He is from Argentina and is a long-distance runner. Richard will be graduating from St. Meinrad Seminary in May and will be ordained a deacon with Charles Osewe Aketch in Kenya in July. We are glad that each of you is here celebrating Holy Week with us.

Operation Rice Bowl: if you have been collecting funds in the Operation Rice Bowls, we will take your donations after Easter and will send them to Catholic Relief Services.

Help with Protecting your Prescription

Drugs: Erin Lee, from Family Connections, has received a grant and is able to provide a small lock-box to keep your prescription medicines safe. This is very important if you have pain medicine and someone in the household may want to use or abuse that medicine. The lock-boxes are free and can be picked-up at local doctors' offices, pharmacies, or the Family Connections office. Or, see Fr. Mike or Bro Jason and we can obtain one for you.

Fr. John Brown is planning on visiting us on the weekend of April 28-29. We are planning on having a pot-luck after Mass.

Please do not forget the Bishop's Annual Appeal. We will take up the pledge envelopes on Sunday, April 7th.

Un breve resumen en Español

Bienvenido a dos estudiantes de Glenmary: estamos felices de tener a Antonio Marchi y Richard Toboso con nosotros para el Triduum. Antonio es de Argentina y es un corredor de maratón. Richard se graduará en el seminario de St. Meinrad en mayo y será ordenado diácono de Charles Osewe Aketch en Kenia en julio. Nos alegra que estés celebrando la Semana Santa con nosotros.

Ayuda con la protección de sus medicamentos recetados: Erin Lee, de Family Connections, ha recibido una subvención y puede proporcionar una pequeña caja de seguridad para mantener seguros sus medicamentos recetados. Esto es muy importante si tiene analgésicos y alguien en el hogar puede querer usar o abusar de ese medicamento. Las cajas de seguridad son gratuitas y pueden recogerse en las oficinas de médicos locales, farmacias o en la oficina de Family Connections.

No olvide la Campaña Anual del Obispo. Tomaremos los sobres de promesa el domingo, 7 de abril.

Operación Plato de Arroz: si ha estado recolectando fondos en la Operación Cuencos de Arroz, tomaremos sus donaciones después de Pascua y las enviaremos a Catholic Relief Services.

Retiro: Por Novios, Parejas Que Viven Juntas, Casadas y No Casadas: Sabado, 14 de Abril en la Iglesia en Tifton, 8:30 – 5:00 pm. For mas informacion, puedes llamar 229-382-4600 o Marisol Gaytan: 229-402-7725.

Padre John Brown espera visitarnos el fin de semana el 28 y 29 de Abril.
