Thank You

HOME COMING:

The Prodigal Son could not have had any greater welcome and that one was planned by God himself. I took leave 28 years ago, in 1988, with tears of sorrow. I came back carrying the sheaves of years with different people and places to feel very much remembered and loved. As I preached I remembered how good had been our nine years together and how wonderful ideals of what church can be had been planted in my mind and heart. Thanks for the years when Fell St. was my home and thanks for a homecoming that lifted me up with joy. I felt alive and glowing the whole time. Your love is even better than collard greens but they were real good too, everything was wonderful!
Love, Father Michael Smith
