Stewardship

“Parishioners must accept responsibilities for their parishes and contribute generously both money and personal service to their programs and projects. The success or failure of parish programs, the vitality of parish life or its absence, the ability or inability of a parish to render needed services to its members and the community depend upon all.”

Stewardship: A Disciple's Response

Parish Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of Resurrection of Our Lord Catholic Church, acknowledge, understand and accept the responsibilities associated with the gifts bestowed upon us through the Holy Spirit, we continue to proclaim the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We celebrate the Eucharist and sacraments in our culturally diverse community, where persons of all races and nationalities are invited to help us become a living witness of the gospel.

We share our faith and empower members in our faith community to become disciples of Jesus Christ with a commitment to stewardship and the church's social teaching.

We rely on the help of the Holy Spirit as we pursue this mission.

The Roman Missal is very direct in what it says about silence in the liturgy; "Sacred Silence also, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times: At the beginning of the Penitential Act, after the invitation to pray, after each reading, the Homily and after Communion. Observing silence before and during Mass, is aimed at recollection, meditation and silence. Excerpts from "A Conversation with Stillness: The Ritual of Silence in the Mass" by Father Douglas Martis
