Stewardship

“At the same time, stewardship in and for the parish should not be narrowly parochial. For the diocese is not merely an administrative structure but instead joins communities called parishes into a “local church” and unites its people in faith, worship and service. The same spirit of personal responsibility in which a Catholic approaches his or her parish should extend to the diocese and be expressed in essentially the same way: generous material support and self-giving.”

Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response

Parish Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of Resurrection of Our Lord Catholic Church, acknowledge, understand and accept the responsibilities associated with the gifts bestowed upon us through the Holy Spirit, we continue to proclaim the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We celebrate the Eucharist and sacraments in our culturally diverse community, where persons of all races and nationalities are invited to help us become a living witness of the gospel.

We share our faith and empower members in our faith community to become disciples of Jesus Christ with a commitment to stewardship and the church’s social teaching.

We rely on the help of the Holy Spirit as we pursue this mission.

THANK YOU

Dear Resurrection Family,
Thanks for all your love and support extended to our family on the passing of our father, Edward L. Davis. You all are the best.
Love, Lex Ann, Eddie and Patricia

Thank you to the Parish Life Committee for hosting the Annual Back to School Luncheon, the St. Pius X High School Alumni Association Luncheon and the Confirmation Reception. This ministry was quite busy during the month of August. Please know that your parish family is grateful for your stewardship.

If you would like to be a member of this ministry, please contact Elise Bacon.
