"Absolute Truth and Consequences" Catechetical Workshop

Wednesday, January 16, 2019, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Location: St. Joseph Church

This workshop is open to anyone who is interested in knowing more about the teachings of the Catholic Church., For those Catechists or Teachers working on their certification, it will count as an elective. For Catholic school teachers, 2 religion hours will be given. The workshop will be held on Wednesday, January 16, 2019 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Registration fee is $10. Presenter: Father Taj Glodd Location: St. Joseph Catholic Church Hall, 3283 US Hwy. 167, Opelousas Have you ever had someone say, "What's true for me is true for me, and what's true for you, is true for you; there is no such thing as absolute truth." How do we respond to such a claim when as Catholics we invite people into a family whose Heavenly Father is truth? The answer lies in the reality of natural law and the order in which God created all things. Fr. Taj Glodd will unpack the difference between objective and subjective truth, expose moral relativism for what it is, and will illustrate how the natural law written into the hearts of every person created by God can be known, understood, and responded to in cooperation with sanctifying grace. Questions? Call Nikki Sonnier at the Office of Catechetics at 337-261-5550 or email nsonnier@diolaf.org.

Prayer Blanket Ministry
Mrs. Ruby Duhon

The prayer blanket is a crocheted lap-gghan. Prayers are said with every stitch. The colors usually represent the illness. It measures 40" x 52" with an insert of a cross. Example: For bone cancer—the cross would be yellow with a purple background. After the blanket is completed is it folded, wrapped with a ribbon and accompanied by a prayer card. Then brought to be blessed by Fr. Mark. The blanket is usually requested by a friend or family member. It is not sold but a donation to help pay for supplies is appreciated. Once the recipient receives the blanket “PLEASE” unwrap it and use it.
 My name is Ruby Duhon and I make prayer blankets. My phone number is (337) 652-1337 if you would like to place an order.
