SAINTS' Scoop Newsletter May 15, 2019

Dear Queen of All Saints Families,

Thank you all for celebrating multicultural day with our school community! Mrs. Davis and Señora Egan did a wonderful job highlighting the cultures of our school through song and dance. Thank you for contributing to the potluck lunch and sharing time together. Multicultural day is one of the favorite traditions at Queen of All Saints School.

As I mentioned in my message last week, next year we will begin the two-year process for our WCEA/WASC accreditation. Input from our families and school community are important to this process. We are working on a survey that will provide information needed for this process. Prior to the end of the school year, I will be sending out a link to a survey asking you about the school's strengths, areas for growth, and your hopes for the future. Your comments and responses will be greatly appreciated, and will assist us in writing our document. Thank you in advance for your cooperation as we continue to partner with you in our ongoing school improvement process.

Blessings,
Lucia Prince

They Will Know Us by Our Love

One day Jesus was talking to his disciples. He knew that the day was coming when he would return to heaven, and he was trying to prepare his disciples for the day when he would no longer be with them. He wanted to leave them with something that would help them to live in such a way that other people would see them and know that they were his disciples.

"I will be with you only a little while longer," Jesus said. "Then you will look for me, but you won't find me because you cannot go where I am going. I give you a new commandment. You must love each other just as I have loved you. If you love each other, everyone will know that you are my disciples."

Would you like for people to look at the way you live and know that you are a follower of Jesus? Well, then obey his command, "Love one another as I have loved you."

Dear Father, help us to live by the new commandment that Jesus left with his disciples. Help us to love others in the same way that Jesus loves us so that others will know that we are his disciples. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.
